Sarah Elizabeth Rose, proprietor of the Rose Hotel

OLDEST HOTEL IN ILLINOIS

Items provided by June Reid

Owner of Rose Hotel Since 1890 Died Tuesday

Hardin County Independent, March 16, 1939 [Illinois]

In failing health for months, Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Rose, age 87, the oldest business executive in Elizabethtown, died at the Rose Hotel Tuesday afternoon. Funeral services for her are to be held this afternoon with Rev. Frazier, Baptist minister from Harrisburg officiating.

Mrs. Rose bought the McFarland Hotel from James McFarland in 1890 and has been in charge since that time. She had first bought a hotel in Elizabethtown in 1884 in the building where Harry Ellis now lives, the old Litzenberger property. A few years later, she operated a hotel in the block where the phone office is now located before she bought the McFarland Hotel, which was built as a tavern in 1817.

Mrs. Rose was born on the Benjamin Pruett place near Elizabethtown, then known as Capt. B. P. McFarland's farm. When she was 3 years of age, her parents, Calvin and Frances Baker, moved to a farm near Equality.

When she was 17 she was married to Wiley Rose, a farmer from Hardin County, and came back to this county again. He died when she was young. They had three children - one died in infancy; Frances Rose died in 1914 and her third child, Mrs. U. G. Gullett, has assisted her in running the Rose Hotel. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. C. M. Wasson and Mrs. Harry Pierson, Harrisburg and a brother, Morgan Baker, who lives near Equality. Mrs. Rose fell and broke her leg when she was 79 years old and took care of it herself until it healed "as good as new" and served her for eight more years.

SARAH ELIZABETH ROSE

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Rose was the proprietor of the Rose Hotel, the oldest hotel in Illinois.

Mrs. Sarah Rose, the daughter of the late Calvin and Frances Baker, was born on the Jim Pruett farm a short distance from Elizabethtown on Nov. 5, 1851. She was one of nine children of whom four, including herself, were still living in 1935. They were Morgan Baker of Gallatin Co., Mrs. Mary Baker Pearson and Mrs. Lucy Baker Wasson of Harrisburg, Ill.

In 1854 her father, together with three other families, moved to Gallatin Co. Going up the Ohio River to Shawneetown in a keel boat, they settled on a farm near Shawneetown. The brother, Morgan Baker, in later years lived in the house built by his father.

In 1869 Sarah was married to Wiley Rose, a member of one of the oldest pioneer families of Hardin Co. Three children were born to them, one of whom died in infancy, Francis, who died in 1914, and Charlotte (Mrs. U. G. Gullett) of Elizabethtown. Her grandchildren at the time of this article were Mrs. Robert Price of Carbondale, and Judge James Gordon Gullett of Elizabethtown.

The house owned and operated by Mrs. Rose was built in 1812 by James McFarlan and was never used as a dwelling but was a tavern, then later an inn. Mrs. Rose bought the house in 1884 and has operated a hotel there ever since.

Mrs. Rose could trace the history of Hardin Co. from its earliest beginning. Elizabethtown was named from Elizabeth McFarlan. Mrs. Rose's home overlooking the Ohio River was one of the most beautiful sites in Hardin Co. and has been a haven for many a weary traveler who had, no doubt, pleasant memories of the Rose Hotel and its proprietor, Mrs. Sarah Rose. — Taken from the Hardin Co. Independent dated Jan. 10, 1935

Wiley³ Rose (Wiley², Henry¹) was born 1844 (g.s.), Illinois. He died 1893 (g.s.). He married 31 July 1869, Gallatin County, Illinois VR, Sarah E. Baker who was born 5 November 1852 (g.s.), on the Benjamin Pruett place near Elizabethtown (her obit.), Illinois, daughter of Calvin and Frances () Baker (her obit.). Sarah died 7 March 1939 (g.s.), buried Elizabethtown, Illinois. Rose Family descends from the Granville County, North Carolina Rose family through a branch that went into Wilkes County, Georgia, then Kentucky, and then Pope County, Illinois.

Dear Readers,

We can hardly believe another year has passed. Our quarterly publication, which commenced in 1966, will now be starting its 47th year of publication. As far as we know, it is the largest of all family periodicals to be in continuous publication.

We hope you will enjoy this issue. We will be presenting more Rose "sketches" of various Rose families, and hope you will consider submitting one of yours. There are details elsewhere in this publication.

We have appreciated the many notes of support you have sent during our DNA project problems. It's very heartening to know that so many members know the background of our project and know that the project, always a part of the Rose Family Association, has been thrust from us amid many erroneous and unsupported allegations by the new administrators. We are hearing from others who have experienced problems with that testing firm, too.

On another note, we would like to pose a question to members. We will be experiencing some delay in getting issues out to members when we are in the East. As many of you know, we have a condo outside of D.C., in Fairfax County, Virginia, which we use as a base for several months a year in order to search in the midwest, south, and East. However, when we are in the East this poses a problem with bulk mailing. Our permit is in San Jose and we must mail from that post office to use the bulk mail permit. Our eldest daughter Debbie, who previously worked for a newspaper and then in a family operated printing business, was familiar with mail procedures and used to handle that mailing whenever we were in the East. However, our beautiful Debbie passed away at far too young an age on April 20, 2012, of cancer. Our youngest daughter Becky has very efficiently forwarded our regular mail to us when we are in the East but is unable to take on the quarterly RFB mailing.

Some alternatives. We could consider a "members only" section at our website in which each member would get a password to access the issue. That issue could then be either read online or even printed from the download. Or, we could establish a mailing list in which we would email a copy to each member. These two alternatives would be advantageous in that the issues would not only be made available sooner to members than postal mail, but they would be in color. Those members who do not use a computer could request a mailed copy. There would be few enough we think who do not have computers that we could give up the bulk mail permit (which requires a minimum mailing of 200 at one time) and just print a few for those who need it by first class mail.

If we consider emailing copies we will need to be sure that the size of our publication makes it feasible. That is, that the issues would not be too large to download quickly. If so, the "members' only" section at our website would seem to be the answer. Let us know your thoughts! In the meantime, we cannot mail the upcoming March issue until about the first of April 2013, when we get back to California. Issues normally take 1-3 weeks to arrive at their destination. We'll try to have a solution before then, but be prepared that the next issue may be about a month late. The June issue should be on time.

Our new address is 761 Villa Teresa Way, San Jose, CA 95123. After 45 years in our home, we decided to move to a smaller place. The summer was spent with the many details of selling, buying, sorting, etc.! We are in our new place and enjoying it immensely.

We do wish you all a beautiful holiday and wonderful New Year. We feel so close to so many of you as we all have worked to identify our Rose families. We hope you can share your holiday with family, no matter where they are.

William Marvin Rose

SPARTA, TENNESSEE

Condensed from a lengthy autobiography in The Sparta Magazine of June 11, 2008, sent by Martha Sue Broyles.

Wm. Marvin Rose's paternal great-grandfather was a traveling circuit pastor named Samuel W. Rose who preached at Mr. Carmel & Hampton's Crossroads churches as well as others.

Sam and his wife had relatives that fought on both sides of the Civil War. He was married to Mary M. Hatfield, a direct descendant of the Hatfield's of the Hatfield-McCoy feud.

Sam's wife Mary died leaving six children; he gave one each to a relative to raise, including William McKinzie Rose to Rene Hatfield Saylor. Bill married Hattie, and among their children was a middle son Marvin Odell Rose. He had among his children a son William Marvin Rose who was the only one to return to Sparta, Tennessee. He married Patty Broyles Rose and they have four children, Michele Anderson, Chasity Wilson, Wm McKinzie Rose II and Ireneo Baltazar Rose.

Susquehanna County, Pennsylvania

Extracted by editors at the courthouse. This county was formed in 1810 from Luzerne County and has many good records. Robert H. Rose of Philadelphia was a large landowner here, and owner of the beautiful estate Silver Lake which later burned. A variety of other Roses also lived in this county. The earliest Rose estate (as shown below) was that of a Massachusetts Rose.

Descendants of John Rose (Roosa) of Broome County, New York

Member Jane Dennis Quade # 0819Q83 first contacted us in the early 1980s. Jane worked diligently trying to solve her Rose puzzle as she only had her Rock County, Wisconsin family back to Prudence Rose. Christine assisted but the records could not be found that provided proof of ancestry. Finally, when a member of her family was placed in Group T which included the John Rose of Broome County, New York. Using that clue some intense research was undertaken by Jane and I and our late Project Administrator David Brown. We determined that her ancestor was Sherlond³ Rose (Salmon Montague² Rose, John¹) who had married Prudence Mathiesen.

The three pictured sisters, Nancy, Betty and Charlotte (l. to r.) are daughters of Elvin Charles Rose (who married Camilla Viola Johnson), who was son of John M. and Nancy (Baldwin) Rose, and grandson of Sherlond³ Rose.

51ST CONGRESS, 1ST SESSION. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. REPORT NO. 1167.

MERRITT ROSE.

March 31, 1800--Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed. Mr. Stone, of Kentucky, from the Committee on War Claims, submitted the following REPORT:

The Committee on War Claims, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 2937) for the relief of Merritt Rose, report as follows:

The claim is for the value of a horse taken from the claimant in Trigg County, Ky., by the Army of the United States, during the late war. Claim states at $150.

The proof shows that in October, 1863, United States troops took from the claimant one horse for the use of the Army. The taking of the property and the loyalty of the claimant is fully established. Your committee therefore report back the bill and recommend its passage.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Condensed from a lengthy article in American Profile sent by Ellnora Young. Ellnora tells us this is a supplement to her Roseburg, Oregon, newspaper. This interesting article by Marti Attoun tells of the silhouettes created by Cindi Harwood Rose. For a $40 donation to her Rose Ribbon Foundation, this Houston, Texas, woman clips Eden's paper profile in 40 seconds, and, in the process, helps fund reconstructive surgery for uninsured breast cancer survivors. Rose's father encouraged her to share her talents with others, and as a teen she began clipping silhouettes for patients at Texas Children's Hospital in Houston.

COLONIAL PAINTER IDENTIFIED

From: www.wydaily.com/local-news/5303-cw-librarian-solves-mystery

[This may no longer be online at the Colonial Williamsburg website. Condensed from an article by Amber Lester Kennedy Nov. 2, 2010: Now, after more than 200 years after placing brush to paper, John Rose has been identified as the painter in an 18th century watercolor that has stymied scholars. His identity might never have been known if not for the digging of librarian Susan P. Shames, a decorative arts library for the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation. She listed primary documents to reveal clues to identify the painter. Rose was born in the early 1750s. He appears in records both as resident of the Beaufort District in South Carolina in 1775. He died in Charleston in 1820, leaving the painting in his will to a son-in-law. Since its acquisition by Colonial Williamsburg, the painting has been reproduced in textbooks and scholarly publications.

DR. EARL ROSE, 85, Coroner When Kennedy was Shot, dies: By Douglas Martin, May 3, 2012, The New York Times. [This lengthy article was drawn to our attention by member Thomas Rose of Columbia, Mo.] Earl Rose, who was the Dallas County medical examiner when President John F. Kennedy was assassinated insisted that he should do the autopsy but was overruled in a confrontation with presidential aides. His confrontation occurred outside Trauma Room 1 at Parkland. Dr. Rose informed the Secret Service and other aides traveling with Kennedy that state law required that an autopsy in a murder be performed in the county where the crime had taken place, but finally stepped aside.

Earl Forrest Rose was born September 23, 1926, in Eagle Butte, S.D. He moved to Dallas in June 1963. In addition to his wife, the former Marilyn Preheim, Dr. Rose is survived by his daughters Elise, Cecile, Karen, Miriam and Carol Rose. His son Forrest died in 2005.

Pennsylvania*CLARENCE ROSE DEATH IN IOWA

Sent by Larry Baxter, from the Patriot, Chariton, Lucas County, Iowa.

Died June 30, 1899, at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Jessie Myers, in Benedict, Neb., Mr. Clarence Rose. Funeral services were held from the home on Saturday afternoon, conducted by the Lutheran minister, and the remains interred in the Benedict cemetery. Clarence was born in Warren township Lucas County, Iowa, Dec. 9, 1870, and was a son of our townsman, Howard S. Rose. Married to Miss Helen Losler at Belville, Ill. Oct. 2, 1894. He was a member of Episcopal church and lived an honest, upright, christian life, and had a high regard for everything that had a tendency to uplift humanity. For several years he was engaged in the photograph business in Chariton, having left here about eighteen months ago on account of failing health. He, with his wife,, went to New Mexico with the hope that his health would be benefitted, but that dread disease consumption had taken such deep hold that their hopes were blasted, and after going to different points in the south, he was taken to the home of his aunt in Benedict, but lived but a few days. His father arrived at his bedside a few hours before his death, and was joyfully received by his dying young. Clarence had a host of friends in Chariton and Lucas county who lived and respected him, and with whom the Patriot joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved wife, father and brothers ... [rest omitted]. [From Larry Baxter.]n [Clarence Rose was the son of Silas Howard³ Rose, Stephen Gilbert² Rose, Phillip¹ Rose.

Macon County, Tennessee Rose Family

MOONINGHAM/WHITE/ROBINSON CEMETERY

David Lee Rose of davidleerose@gmail.com told us that after some searching over several years he found the “Buck Rose Cemetery.” Buried there is William Britten Rose³ (William Jackson Rose², David Rose at the gravestone of his grandfather W. B. Rose.

William¹) a.k.a. “Buck” Rose, almost certainly his father, William Jackson Rose (no marker but according to a report) and very likely Buck’s grandfather William¹ Rose (no marker). The only other legible grave marker was that of Mary E. Mooningham, who was a daughter of one of the Roses. In addition, there were over a dozen planted field stones that obviously seemed to serve as burial markers.

David, his wife Suzi, and son Christian made a trip there. They met with the current landowners, the Yorks, who had purchased it from a widow of Rufus Rose in 1991.

This family is part of the William and Parthena Rose family of Smith County, Tennessee, Group F.

Madison County, Arkansas

LAND RECORDS

Copied by editors at the courthouse. This county has always been of interest to editors because William J. Rose, editor's great-grandfather, moved from Limestone County, Alabama, to Madison County, Arkansas, in the mid-1850s. He evidently went there either with or to follow one of his Burney relatives. William married in Madison County shortly after his arrival to Elizabeth Gibson and soon after that they went to California via wagon train. However, William was not in Madison County long enough to leave any appreciable records.

Note: It would seem there was a courthouse fire for many of the items we have are dated early, but show recordation 1892. They were probably re-recorded.

John H. Rose of Hardin County, Illinois

John was born 4 September 1829 (calculated from his age at death), and died 30 April 1890 aged 61y 7m 26d. He is buried in the Rose Cemetery on the route south from Harod toward Elizabethton, Hardin County, Illinois. He married Ellen Wallace. She born 11 July 1823, died 2 February 1878, buried Turner's Cemetery with her 2nd husband. She m. 2nd, - Turner. Those tracing this family should read the discussion in the Rose Family Association's Family Report on the Henry Rose Family of Pope County, Illinois. There appear to be some confusion between a John Thomas Rose and a John Henry Rose.

Samuel Rose, son of Solomon Rose of Germany

From Portrait and Biographical Record of Oklahoma (Chicago: Chapman Publishing Co., 1904) pp. 879-880, sent by Mary Nunneley.

SAMUEL ROSE, the pioneer dry-goods merchant of Shawnee, is a thoroughly public-spirited citizen and man of enterprise. Through his indefatigable efforts the people of this locality are supplied with the latest and most reliable styles of goods at reasonable prices, and thus his trade is continually increasing, as he justly deserves. For a young man who has seen but thirty years, his success in the business world is notable, and his future is full of promise.

The parents of our subject are Solomon and Caroline (Meyer) Rose, natives of Germany. The father, whose birthplace was near Frankfort, came to the United States when young, and after residing at Little Falls, N.Y., for a period he located in La Grange, Ind., where he now is one of its most substantial citizens. For thirty-five years he has been engaged in mercantile enterprises there, and over a score of years ago organized the First National Bank of the place. This flourishing institution now possesses its second charter, and for some time Mr. Rose has officiated as president of the bank. He is identified with the Masonic order and is actively interested in all home affairs of public moment. His wife and seven of their eight children survive, and all of the sons have received practical educations and training for life's duties.

The birth of Samuel Rose occurred in La Grange, Ind., April 5, 1871. In his native town his elementary education was acquired in the grammar and high schools, after which he pursued a course of studies in the College at Notre Dame, Ind. Ten years ago he went to Chicago, where he served as a bookkeeper to a large firm for five years, becoming familiar with the systematic methods and wonderful enterprise of local firms. In July, 1895, he came to Shawnee, and opened a dry goods, clothing and shoe store at the corner of Main and Broadway. Here he occupied a space 25x140 feet in the Maxey block, which had been hardly completed when he moved in his stock of goods. One of the charter members of the Shawnee Club, he has exerted his influence for the permanent welfare of the city. In his political creed, he is a Democrat.

The lady who presides over the hospitalities of Mr. Rose's house became his bride in Kansas City in 1898. She is a native of Kentucky, and in her girlhood bore the name of Julia O'Brien. One child blesses the union of this estimable young couple, Ella.

[The account continues with an extensive account of her family, from Ireland.]

Erhard (Evrhard) Rose of Berks County, Pennsylvania

[Typed for the Association by member Marge Bond].

Evrhard (Everhardt) Rose, the first of the name of whom we have record, died in 1801. He was a weaver and was living in Reading, Pennsylvania, as early as 1759, when he was on a list of taxables. He must have been in the neighborhood some years earlier, however, for a child of his was baptized in 1754 at Trinity Lutheran Church, Reading. He was an innkeeper in Reading. He is also called innkeeper in 1777. On October 27, 1761, he bought, for #300, a messuage and lot on Callowhill Street, Reading, and on March 25, 1777, he bought another messuage and lot also in Reading. On June 30, 1777, Ehrhard Rose took the oath of allegiance.

The will of Ehrhard Rose, borough of Reading, Berks Co., Pennsylvania, bequeaths to his wife, Eve. After her decease, all estate to be sold and equally divided among his children. Executors were son-in-law, Jacob Bright, and son, Daniel Rose. The will was dated November 3, 1800, and signed "Erhardt Roos" (in German Script).

Ehrhard Rose married Eve, whose name is also recorded as Eva. Children:

1. Daniel, of whom further.
2. Philip Jacob, resided in Kutztown, Pennsylvania; married Elizabeth.
3. Barbara, married Rev. Theobald Faber.
4. Elizabeth Margaret, born January 20, 1754, baptized February 17, 1754.
5. Eve, born in 1756, died in 1826; married Jacob Bright, who conducted a large brewery, afterwards carried on by his widow; he was for many years chief clerk in the county commissioner's office.

6. Juliana, married Henry Brown.
7. Elizabeth, married Abraham Witman, an innkeeper of Reading.
8. Catharine, married Daniel Oyster.

Daniel Rose, son of Ehrhard (or Everhardt) and Eve Rose; died in October, 1827. He was a watch and clock maker, and lived in Reading, Pennsylvania, where he owned considerable property. In 1801 he is called "Esquire," and he probably held the office of justice of the peace. On April 3, 1771, Isaac Levan, of Reading, gentleman, deeded to Daniel Rose, of the same place, clock maker, a messuage and lot in Reading, number two hundred and eighty-four in the Town Plan. On December 16, 1774, Abel Morris, of Reading, clock maker, deeded to Daniel Rose, of the same place, clock maker, for &190, northernmost moiety of lot on west side of Callowhill Street, Reading, marked seventy-eight on Town Plan. On May 1, 1778, Daniel Rose, town of Reading, clock maker, and wife Christina, deeded to Ehrhardt Rose (father of the said Daniel), for £1,000, messuage and one-half part of lot on west side of Callowhill Street, in Reading, marked number twenty-eight in Town Plan; bought from Abel Morris, December 16, 1774.

The estate of Daniel Rose, inventoried October 1, 1827, amounted to £ 2,000. Bond: Jacob Levan, Jacob Kutz, and Daniel Moyer, of Maxatawny, all of Berks County. October 1, 1827, letters of administration were granted to Jacob Levan, a son-in-law to Daniel Rose, late of the borough of reading, gentleman.

Daniel Rose married Christina.

BEDFORD COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA FAMILY

PRESTON ROSE BRANCH

In 1989, when the Rose Family Association contemplated publishing a "Heritage of Roses" book several members submitted some brief sketches of their families. We didn't get enough of these at the time to proceed with the publication, but those who submitted the sketches were agreeable at the time to having them published in various issues of the Rose Family Bulletin. The following was provided in June 1989 by Frank P. Rose Jr., then of 1622 Dale Dr., Arlington, Texas 76010. Frank wrote to say "I have written about my grandpa Preston Rose. Some of Preston's story overlaps Isadora's story (his wife) which appeared in the Rose Family Bulletin June 1988 issue, on page 3305 ... "

Frank is now deceased, but thanks to charter member Bob Rose #1143R86 who has done more on this family than any other, we have two photos provided by Preston to Bob years ago. Bob also provided the obituary of Frank. These Roses are descended from the early William Rose of Bedford County, Pennsylvania. William¹ Rose, married Mary [maiden name unknown] according to a deed, but may have had a first wife Mrs. Sarah Gardner. Preston's line comes through Edward² Rose, Allen³ Rose, and Daniel⁴ Rose. The latter, Daniel H., was born 1811 (according to his own 1875 affidavit), or was born 10 May 1811 (Historical and Geographical Ency., Personal History Dept., Mason Co., pp. 11-12). He married 11 April 1833, Muskingum County, Ohio VR (m. by James Little) to Catherine Russell who was born 23 August 1812, Athens County, Ohio and died 27 June 1867, Gallia County, Ohio (Hist. and Geo. Enc.). Among Daniel H. and Catherine (Russell) Rose's children was a son Preston, subject of this present article.

From Frank's account:

Preston Rose was born 11 May 1844, from the date on his tombstone. He was son of Daniel H. and Catharine (Russell) Rose of Gallia County, Ohio. He married Isadora Blessing 3 November 1867 at Gallia County, Ohio.

Isadora Blessing was born 5 December 1851 in Scioto County, Ohio, the oldest of four daughters (no sons). Mary Catharine was born 21 February 1855, Viola L. was born 18 March 1858, and Bettie F. was born 7 August 1861 of John R. and Lucinda A. (Shope) Blessing. John R. Blessing was a Major in the 91st Ohio Volunteers U.S.A. Civil War.

Preston and Isadora Rose had six children:

Archie C. b. 1869 Ohio

Eddie O. born 1871 Ohio

John D. born 8 August 1872 Illinois, m. Jennie E.

Alice C. b. 1875 Illinois, m. a Weaver.

Cora M. b. 1878 Illinois, m. a Hancock

Frank P. b. 12 June 1872, Texas, m. Margaret Ellen Cross.

Preston Rose and his wife Isadora Blessing. Identification is from penciled captions next to the photos sent by Frank P. to Bob in 1987.

Preston and Isadora moved from Gallia County, Ohio to Douglas County, Illinois, soon after Eddie was born in 1871. They purchased 40 acres of good farm land about two miles north of the Town of Garrett from Preston's father Daniel H. Rose who had moved to Illinois soon after his wife Catharine (Russell) Rose passed away in Gallia County, Ohio, on 27 June 1867. The family remained there farming until sometime between 1878 and 1892 and then moved to Texas. Their son and last child Frank Preston Rose was born in Cooke County just north and near the town of Gainesville, Texas, on 12 June 1892.

Archie C. the oldest son of Preston and Isadora Rose owned land in Love County, Oklahoma, and it bordered on the Red River just south of the town of Thakerville. Preston owned land on the Texas side of the Red River in Cook County just north of Gainesville, Texas and directly across from the land of Archie in Oklahoma. They operated a ferry across Red River for a few years. Also, Preston built and taught school in a one room schoolhouse named "White Rose" school house. It's not standing now, but would have been in what is now the White Rose school district in and about the town of Thackerville, Oklahoma, Love County.

Sometime between 1898 and 1911 Preston, Isadora and Frank moved to a farm in Coleman County, Texas. The farm was a short distance East of Hords Creek and a little north of the town of Coleman. [con't. 5421]

Frank attended a country school by the name of "Lone Star." Preston developed kidney trouble. He entered Scott-White Hospital in Temple, Texas, but was unable to overcome the infection. He passed away 8 February 1911, and is buried in the Spring Creek Cemetery in the Methodist Church Yard five miles south of the town of Gainesville, Cooke County, Texas.

Bob also sent the obituary he pulled from the following website:

SEEKING CURRENT ROSE SKETCHES

We Seek sketches prepared by present-day descendants of Rose families. These should be about 1 to 1 1/2 page in length, with perhaps 3-4 photographs. They should be on the personal side rather than genealogical compilations; information on the personalities, occupations, personal characteristics, etc. For examples see those published in the Rose Family Bulletin as compiled by Stephen C. Rose, Joe Smith, Rose Klix, etc. during the past couple of years.

From the Mailbag

Dana Rose # 3322R12 with a 4.5lb smallmouth bass caught in Lake Tapps/Bonney Lake Washington. Dana tells us that when his family was stationed in England (Air Force) Dana was in Boy Scouts. On one tour they toured Scotland and while going to Loch Ness he stripped down to his jeans and jumped in. The scout master was very angry and demanded that he get out of the water but he didn't need the threat for the water was "cold as ice cubes" and Dana had immediately gotten out. He then continued and drove right by Kilravock Castle! He still remembers the sight of that Rose castle at Kilravock. He was ten or twelve at the time.

From Our Members ...

Martha Sue Broyles #0674B82 tells us that she and her husband Ken (#0733B82), descendant of Zachariah Rose of Tennessee, keep very busy. They will have been married 60 years on December 20th. Ken is an elder at his church and has been for thirty-four years, and he also keeps up farming. Martha Sue is very active in organizations and keeping up with activities of children and grandchildren.

Linda Olsen #3252011 writes that a relative noticed that the picture of Timothy Harris Rose, on the front cover of the Rose Family Bulletin June 2012 page 5175 it shows Hampton, Franklin County, Ohio. It should be Hampton, Franklin County, Iowa.

Member Peggy Dillard #3281D11, a retired nurse, and her husband John Marshall Dillard, retired from practicing law for 40 years in Greenville, South Carolina. They have four children, Leslie Williams, Margaret E. Dillard, Mary Foster Cox and John Dillard Jr., and have eight grandchildren. Peggy is active in a local garden club, DAR, Daughter of American Colonists and Colonial Dames XVII Century. John volunteers teaching for the local Literacy Association and spends his spare time doing genealogy, gardening and auditing history etc. classes at a local university. They keep busy!

Roses of Johnston County, North Carolina Hold Reunion

Sent by Kenneth R. Rose #91R1620 roseken@bellsouth.net who tells us that this is the William Mills⁵ Rose reunion held the 3rd Sunday in September at Ann⁸ Rose Parrish home in Johnston County, North Carolina. They descend from William Rose of York Co., Virginia.
