Celebrating Velma's 100th Birthday two years ago - she is now 102!!

Reinhardt and Catharine Rose had a son Simon Adams Rose. The latter was father of William Reinhardt Rose who married Mary Anna Hogue. The latter couple had a son William Nelson Steven and Bertha (Kennedy) Rose whose daughter Velma Rose Thomas Simmons is shown celebrating her 100th birthday above. (And, who is now 102!). Carrie Vahsholtz, who submitted the photo, tells us that Karen Smith and Monte Rose were also at the celebration but left before the photo was taken. They are also "Rose" cousins.

Dear Readers,

We continue to hear almost daily from new correspondents tracing their Rose family. There is so much interest in these early families. Many are getting their start by downloading family trees from the Internet. It is disappointing that there are many errors in those published family trees and that these new researchers are often leading astray by trees with inaccurate information. Fortunately, there are many who do carefully recheck what they download and realize that they need to build their own tree based on documentation to be sure there are no errors. And are having a lot of fun doing it!

We continue to be surprised at how few people are accessing courthouse records, usually because they do not realize the wealth of information in those facilities and don't know that they are not generally available on the Internet. Even microfilm does not fully represent what is available in the courthouses. Do go into a courthouse and become familiar with the workings. We are sure you will be amazed at what is there. And, how thrilling when you are holding one of the original court documents found there - a document that was once held by your ancestor while he set his mark or signature on it. In finding original documents signed by Seymour's ancestor I was moved almost to tears knowing this ancestor had held this very same piece of paper in his hand. What a feeling of connection! Do visit the courthouses.

We hope you are taking advantage of the summer to visit Rose relatives and attend reunions. Please do share a photo or two with our readers.

Though the vast majority of our Rose files (42 boxes) are now at the New England Historic Genealogic Society in Boston, Christine continues to work on some others that will be transferred. Do visit that Society and use the Rose files there. You may find some answers!

We do need more accounts from you about your grandparents or great-grandparents. Not a genealogy, but something of a more personal nature - perhaps their work, how they lived, their hobbies, your fond recollections. Add 2-4 photos, make the writing a page to a page and a half, and we'll use it. We can do rewriting if necessary so don't hesitate!

When you access your quarterlies from our website, you can either read it online or download it and make a print copy. A suggestion: create a folder on your computer and deposit a copy of each issue in it so you will always have access to them.

See the last page in this issue for a special offer to 2016 members. A wonderful chance to get copies of this book for gifts, or to donate to a library!

Frederick Rose of Hardin and Wayne Counties, Tennessee Descendants

ALLEN PRIM ROSE SON OF HENRY W. ROSE

Allen Prim⁸ Rose 1865-1952 is buried in the Graham Methodist Church Cemetery, Savannah, Hardin County, Tennessee. He was son of Henry W.⁷ Rose (Enos⁶, Frederick⁵, William⁴, Richard³, Richard², William¹ of Surry County, Virginia), born ca 1833 (census), Tennessee (census). He married (we have been told) to Sarah who was possibly a Smith. However, Hardin County Historical Quarterly Vol. IX No. 1&2 (Jan.-June 1992) p. 6 indicates that Sarah E. Hardin married Henry Rose; further, that she was daughter of Watkins Hardin. The discrepancy has not been resolved.

Children: ROSE, perhaps others.

Granddaughter of John & Hannah (Addleman) Rose OF PENNSYLVANIA

Mary³ Rose (Jacob², John¹) was born ca 1837, Pennsylvania and died 9 February 1811. She married 1st to P. L. Main, and married 2nd to --- Husk (per her obituary). When she died she left three brothers, Eli Rose of Kirby, Perry Rose of Iowa, and Lot Rose of Kirby (Greene Co., Pa.) per her obituary, and three surviving children whose names were not given.

Her obituary (name and date of newspaper unknown) was supplied by Mike Rose:

In Memoriam

Written in loving memory of Mary Husk who departed this life February 9, 1911. Aunt Mary as she was commonly called was not rich in worldly goods, but what a thought that we can meet her where the streets are paved with gold, and where there is no sorrow, pain or tears. Aunt Mary was taken to the county home about a year ago. Paralysis was the cause of her death. She was about 79 years, of age. She leaves three brothers to mourn her loss; Eli Rose, of Kirby, Perry Rose, of Iowa, Lot Rose, of Kirby, and also three children survive her. She was laid to rest in the Claughton Chapel cemetery to await the resurrection morn. [Here follows a poem.]

John Mc Rose DICKINSON COUNTY, VIRGINIA

DEATH OF A PIONEER SETTLER
DWALE, March 10-John McRose, a pioneer settler of this county, died last week at his home on McClure creek at the advanced age of 83. He came originally from near Burnsville, N. C. and settled on a farm near where he died. There he lived until the death of his first wife which occurred a few years ago. "He then 'broke up' and lived with his children until about three years ago." [Condensed from a short article, name and date of newspaper unknown, sent by Lenora Smith.] Year of his death uncertain; born ca 1810-12; supposed to be a half brother of William Green (son of a Green, and Rebecca Rose). His mother is said to be a daughter of John Rose of Burke County, North Carolina and sister of Elias, Wilson and Samuel Rose. His first wife was Martha "Patsy" Hibbits; his 2nd, much younger than he, was Miss Reice who was 32 when he was 81. [John was evidently a Rose; unclear whether Mc/Mack was his middle name.]

Nebraska Family

Pioneer Families of Cedar Co., Neb., Centennial, 1867-1967, at Historical Society in Lincoln, Neb.

Amaziah M. Rose and his wife Sabrena Webster (niece of Noah Webster), m. in Trumbull Co., Ohio. In 1854 with son George age 7 they moved to Nebraska City and then Ft. Kearney where Salla? [Lalla?] was born. They returned to Ohio in 1862, and to Cass County in 1867. Amaziah became the first legislator from Otto County. Virgil born in 1868.

[See findagrave.com, Randolph County, Nebraska, Memorial Memorial #106066374.]

Descendant of John Rose of Greene Co., Illinois

Minnie Rose Page was the daughter of Lewis Martin Rose and granddaughter of Cornelius and Catharine (Osborne/Ausburn) Rose of Greene County, Illinois. Cornelius was a Civil War veteran having served as Private in Capt. Drake's company, Ohio Militia. He married his wife in Licking County, Ohio according to a certified copy of the marriage record in the file. [Xerox of a photo provided by the late Afton Paige. (Her name changed from Page).]

There are a number of people tracing the Roses of Greene County, Illinois. It is somewhat of a perplexing group of Roses for the relationships, if any, between them is uncertain. It needs more study by the various descendants. [See the report of the Rose Family Association on these Roses, listed at: www.RoseFamilyAssociation.com.]

Descendants of Richard Rose a Revolutionary pensioner of Virginia

Stephen "Steve" Austin Rose and Mary Jane Estes about 1896 in North Texas

Abt 1901 - Seated L-R: William M. Rose, Sally M. (Thomas) Rose holding their baby Florence Rose. Back: Unknown Cousin

John Warner Rose was the son of Stephen² (Richard¹) and Casann (Curtis) Rose. Stephen "Steve" Austin Rose (shown with wife Mary Jane Estes) was the brother of John Warner Rose and a son of Richard¹. William M. Rose (William Maridy Rose) shown at the right was the son of James Newton Rose 1842-1879 and Mary Ellen Moore 1845-1920. [Photos courtesy of Dr. John H. Rose.]

This very interesting family of the Revolutionary War pensioner Richard Rose has been the focus of considerable research by member Dr. John H. Rose and others during the years. Richard came out of Virginia where he had served, and later lived variously in Kentucky, Scott and Washington Counties, Indiana, and in Schuyler, Hancock and Adam Counties in Illinois. Richard's second wife was Mary Morris who he married 1 October 1781 in Washington County, Indiana (from his revolutionary pension file).

John provides the following information: "The parents of James were Stephen Rose 1809-1880 and Stephen's 'niece' Esther Conley 1813-1859. The biological grandparents of Esther were Richard Rose 1759-1842 and [his first wife] Elizabeth (Morris?). They were also the 'parents' of Stephen. YDNA testing proves that Stephen was not biologically related to Richard. This might be why he was allowed to marry his own 'niece'. DNA does prove that I [Dr. John Rose] am a descendant of Stephen and his second wife, Cassann Curtis 1837-1873."

John adds that William Maridy Rose 1873-1937 is shown by DNA not to be biologically related to Stephen Rose 1809-1880.

Editor's note: It is believed that the above Richard Rose, Revolutionary soldier, the earliest known ancestor of this family, is the following. It is not conclusively proven but if Richard served more than one enlistment it appears likely that he is indeed the same Richard Rose.

SON OF CYRENIUS ROSE, GRANDSON OF JOHN R. ROSE
ULSTER COUNTY, NEW YORK; MEIGS COUNTY, OHIO

John W. Rose and wife Sara J. (McKim) Rose

John W. Rose, son of Cyrenius Rose, was born 4 July 1838 in Washington County, Ohio (based on his Civil War pension file, National Archives). He died 19 February 1911 based on this file, and is buried in the Lee Chapel Cemetery, Sutton twp., Meigs County, Ohio. He married on 5 July 1862 in Meigs County (pension file) to Sara J. McKim who was born 22 August 1843 and died 23 April 1926. She is buried with her husband.

John W. was a grandson of John R. and Annie (Cox) Rose of Meigs County, Ohio. After years of research, a great deal of it with charter member Betty Rose #0077R80 and Evelyn Martin, and with the assistance later of YDNA, it has been determined that this family is connected with ROOSA of Ulster County, New York. All evidence points to Elisha Rose and Sarah (Haines) Rose as the parents of John R. Rose.

Will Lauderdale, his son-in-law, was one of the founders of Hamilton County.

Emmanuel Rose was the father of Molinda, Elizabeth, Isobel, John, William, Nancy, Harry, Susan, Robert, George, Agnes, Dewey, Sarah and Martha. The family lived at Sale Creek and Soddy where he operated grist mills.

These abstracts from court minutes for a three year period were provided by the late Mildred Bachman, a descendant of Benjamin Rose of Robertson County, Tennessee and North Carolina. Mildred was intensely interested in her Roses and worked diligently for years. After her death YDNA testing established that Mildred had a connection to editor Seymour Rose's family.

CONNECTICUT RECORDS INVOLVING PROBATES

Editor's note: Remember that Connecticut is on the Town system, that is, deeds and other similar records are at the Town Hall and not the County Courthouse. Additionally, probate records are in a probate district which are comprised of one or more towns. It is important to know the parent probate district when doing a search of probate records for the present probate district may not be the one existing at the time your ancestor lived there. The following is taken from A Digest of the Early Connecticut Probate Records by Charles William Manwaring, Vol. III, Hartford District, 1729-1750 (Hartford, Conn.: E. S. Peck & Co., 1906).

For years early historians thought John Rose of Salem County, New Jersey was a part of the Tormut Rose family of Block Island, Rhode Island. However, later genealogists began to doubt this connection for a variety of reasons and finally YDNA substantiated that they were different families with no connection to Tormut Rose. The family of John Rose of Salem County is a part of Group K which is a large group of early Rose families that have some connections to Long Island, New York.

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA

Sent by Thomas M. Rose of Richmond. Tom also sent copies of the tombstone photos of John E. Rose Jr., US navy, World War II 1927-1952 and Lillian Fay C. Rose, April 27, 1897-March 10, 1978. All in Mount Calvary Cemetery. J. F. Ruzicka and his wife Christina Hill Rose Ruzicka (no stone) immigrated from Germany, it is believed. Their son John E. Rose (see tombstone photo above) and his wife Lillian Fay Rose are buried in the same plot years later. The son John E. Rose Jr. is buried somewhere nearby. Tom says that there is no known connection to his own Roses at this time, but Tom's sister asked him to look at these graves so he looked them up. "Coincidentally this set of Roses are buried near my Rose grandparents as well as my Fitzpatrick GP/GGP and Healy GGP ..." [On findagrave.com this photo appears as submitted by Ron Stewart.]

S. L. Rose of Fredericksburg, Virginia

Free Lance 6 Jan. 1920, Fredericksburg, Va.

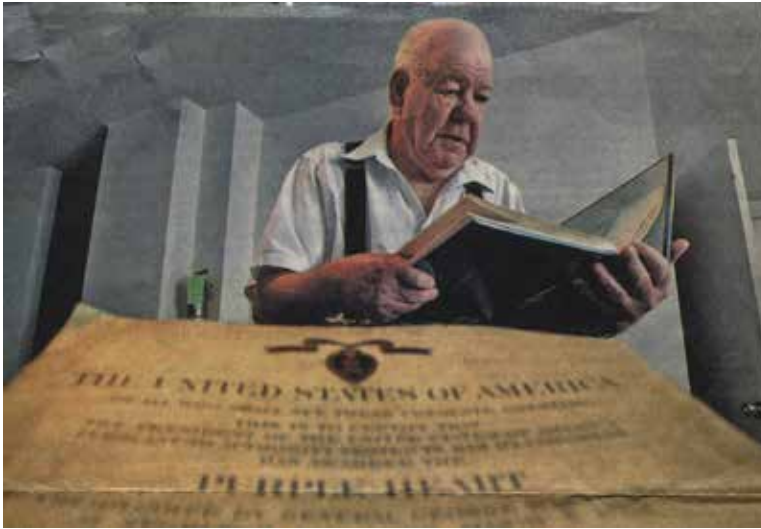

THE LATE S. L. ROSE: Roseville, Va., Jan. 3, 1920

The neighborhood was shocked on the last morning of our old year when the news spread of the sudden illness of our prominent merchant and post-master S. L. Rose. His illness was beyond medical aid. He was a member of Rock Hill Baptist church, which as well as the community has sustained a great loss. He was ever ready and willing to help in his church. He had a cheer word for all and was a kind father and husband.

Funeral services were held at Rock Hill Baptist church on Wednesday at 1:30? p.m. Rev. Glenn J. Cooper, of the M.E. Church, conducted the services. There was a large gathering of sympathizing friends who followed the remains to their last resting place in the cemetery. He leaves a devoted wife and dutiful son, James M. Rose.

Pallbearers: H. M. Patton, Jesse Musselman, Richard Stone, R. G. Montague, Wm Snellings, Chas. Turner.
