This oil on canvas, 37 3/4 x 36 1/4 inch portrait of 1786 was sold by Skinner, Inc. at auction. According to www.antiquesandfineart.com, this broke the previous record for American folk art portraiture, set in January 2007. The artist is unknown. Abigail, who was fourteen at the time, was seated in a Queen Anne chair. We are indebted to media.skinnerinc.com for permission to publish. [Con't p. 5630]

Dear Readers,

Be sure to read our lead article on the auction that fetched $1,271,000 for the portrait of Abigail Rose!

Also of interest is the article by member Rose Klix with details of her exhaustive research that produced answers to her difficult Rose problem. We've been in touch with Rose for several years. When she started she knew very little of her Roses. And now, here she is, with her line established from the early Robert Rose of New England family! We asked her to share that search for it may inspire others who think they are "stuck" with no solution.

Note too the several pages of the 7 State Index to case entry files for federal land. Many of you are familiar with the Bureau of Land Management website of land patents but may not be aware that each of those patents has a land entry file (or in the case of bounty land, an application file) before the Final Certificate was issued granting the patent. These files that preceded the patent can contain valuable information. Be sure to access Kenneth Hawkin's publication mentioned in the article so you can obtain the file for your ancestor's land.

Believe it or not, we are entering our 50th year of publication. That seems amazing to us - we can remember back to our excitement in 1966 to be starting this quarterly. We were so frustrated in our own Rose research and found so many others also having difficulties that we thought we'd put together a "little" publication that might help. We never dreamed to what it would lead. We do need however your ideas on what we might do with this huge collection for we would hate to have to discard it for a lack of a place for the collection to reside. Some groups have actually established their own facility to house their materials, but of course that would need a formally organized organization to handle it. The next best would be to find a library to house the collection but there can be complications there, too. It is a massive collection and would need some protection so that it would be available to those who would wish to use it. And, because of its size, most libraries who are interested cannot handle that much storage. Your ideas are welcome.

If you have questions on the status of your membership or have a change of address or email address, please let us know at either 761 Villa Teresa Way, San Jose, CA 95123 or at our email address at christine@christine4rose.com. Please do not use our old Montelegre Drive address for the letter will probably go to "dead letter" and don't use our old cs.com email for we don't monitor that regularly.

We find that in the winter months genealogists get a lot of "paper" work and research accomplished on their family. We hope you too have been able to use your winter to research and find answers and new leads.

Con't from p. 5627

Justus⁵ Rose (Jonathan⁴, Jonathan³, Jonathan², Robert¹) was born 15 October 1732 according to the vital records of Branford, and died according to those same records on 2 November 1810. He married on 4 November 1771, also recorded, to Lydia Russell, daughter of Jonathan and Eunice (Barber) Russell. At the time that her father "Justice" Rose in the body but signed as Justus Rose) made his will 26 October 1801, his daughter Abigail was married and is called "Abigail Manroe." At the time his estate was distributed in 1811 she had again married and is called "wife of Hezekiah B. Clark."

We have read that Jonathan Rose, father of Abigail, has at least two rooms of furniture preserved in the History room of Yale University but at this time have not confirmed details.

Portrait 1786

Abigail Rose Munroe Clark at age of 14
One of the 4 children of Justus Rose of North Branford, whose portraits all painted by young man from New Haven in payment of board, hung for years in the Rose homestead at North Branford. She was grand mother of the late Beverly Monroe of Guilford. Portraits all in existence save one possibly.

Mrs Wm Parmelee, Norwalk, Conn.

Two rooms of the home of Jonathan Rose (Abigail's grandfather) are preserved. Information on The Curtiss-Rose House, built in 1724 by Jonathan Rose, appears online. The home was sold to Rev. William Curtiss in 1866 who later went bankrupt and lost the house in foreclosure. In 1906 it was purchased by John & Daniel Rose and appears to have been purchased by the New Haven Water Company in 1923. The two rooms were removed and reassembled at the Yale University Art Gallery in New Haven in 1928. The Gallery was renovated in 2012 and one of the Curtiss-Rose rooms was reinstalled in 2013. It is said that the Jonathan Rose farm was probably the largest farm in the valley comprising about 800 acres.

(The book was one of two Rose genealogies which received the prestigious Donald Lines Jacobus award in 1987.) We are indebted to professional genealogist Sandra Hewlett for first bringing the article of the auction to our attention.

HAVE MORE REGARDING THE ROOMS OF THE JONATHAN ROSE HOME THAT ARE NOW AT YALE ART GALLERY.
WE WILL ALSO PUBLISH
THE CURTISS-ROSE HOME.

Above: The floral enameled Battersea patch book portrayed in the painting was sold with the painting. It is said that there were several letters of family correspondence and numerous family documents including deeds and receipts. Abigail married first to Beverly Munroe who died in 1803. She then married second to Hezekiah B. Clark who died in 1827.

Editor's note: Be sure to check the Orphan's Court records in the states which have an Orphan's Court such as Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, Maryland and a few others. These are important records - it is where you will find the intestate proceedings (estates without a will), later divorces, property divisions, etc. Unfortunately they are often overlooked by researchers who check only the Register of Wills.

Freeman Henry Rose: Descendant of Robert Rose

BY ROSE KLIX

Ed. note: We asked Rose to prepare an article of her search for she has diligently followed many leads for several years and finally was able to document her Rose line. This has been shortened for our quarterly but anyone who is interested in more on this can contact Rose at family@roseklix.com. She can provide a copy of her full article.

My Rose lineage is: Robert¹ Rose (w Margery); Danyell/Daniel²; Jonathan³; John⁴; Elijah⁵; Talmon (aka Salmon)⁶; Freeman Henry⁷; Henry Freeman⁸; John Frederick⁹; Harmon Lee¹⁰; James Orion¹¹ (my brother).

Rose Klix and husband Robert Joseph Klix

I'm grateful to many people and record depositories for their help, particularly to my brother Jim who in 2006 took the Y-DNA test. This proved we were somehow descendants of Robert and Margery Rose. There were many, both professionals and others, who subsequently gave an assist with their knowledge of records; I am indebted to them all as well as to the various online websites which assisted in my search.

The following is in chronological order:

Birth: 01 August 1813, Rochester, Ontario County, New York, his birthdate on his petition to transfer into the Wakefield, Nebraska Masonic Lodge from the Kenosha, Wisconsin Lodge. In looking for immigration records on Freeman's wife Jane Bailey who was born in England I instead was shocked when I found Freeman's naturalization index card which stated he was born in 1813 in Rochester, New York. In 1837 Freeman swore allegiance to Canada per his naturalization index card.

03 May 1838 married to Jane Bailey in St. Johns, Anglican Church, Woodhouse, Norfolk, Ontario, Canada from copy of original church record obtained from the church as well as transcripts. Talmon Rose, James Bailey, and Robert Benjamin were listed as witnesses. I believe the two underlined witnesses must be close relations.

May 1838 Freeman arrived in Chicago, Illinois per naturalization index card. I later located the family on census records and in the Chicago city directories.

31 March 1839 son Henry Freeman Rose was born in Chicago, Illinois. [27 October 1839 Chicago fire destroyed vital records. Another fire 8 October 1871 again destroyed vital records. His birth year computed from age abt 1839 per 1860, 1870 and 1880 census; abt 1835 per 1900 census, born March 1836 per headstone and Rose Cemetery record. His parents were married May 1838; he most likely was born in 1839.]

1840 census, Ward 2 Chicago, Cook County, Illinois the census counted Ferman (sic) Rose as one male under 5 (Henry b. 1839)., one male 20-29 (Freeman b. 1813) and one female 20-29 (Jane b. abt 1811).

August 1842, Chicago, Illinois daughter Mary Elizabeth Rose per 1870 and 1880 Kenosha, Wisconsin census Mary Elizabeth (Rose) Bacon born in Illinois.

1843 Chicago city directory listed Freeman Rose Wagon-maker, res Wells, bet Randolph and Washington." 27 October 1843 Chicago, Illinois daughter Hannah Maria Rose born (birthdate computed from her obituary.)

1844 Chicago city directory listed "Freeman Rose wagon-maker, h Wells st, b Rand and Washington."

8 September 1845 Simcoe, Ontario, Canada Talmon Rose and wife Hannah sold land to Freeman Rose a carriage maker registered 4 October 1849 – Also Lot 14, Woodhouse, Norfolk, St.

21 October 1848 Simcoe, Ontario, Canada, son Talmon James Rose (aka James T. Rose) born. In 1894 James T. Rose gave his birthdate and birth location on his Masonic Lodge petition in Wakefield, Nebraska. 1848-1849 tax records located for Freeman Rose and Talmon Rose in Simcoe, Ontario, Canada.

5 October 1849 Simcoe, Woodhouse, Norfolk, Talbot District, Ontario, Canada, Freeman and Jane

Rose sold part of property on Norfolk Street to Duncan Campbell.

1850 Unable to locate the family on the 1850 US census (when they were probably in Canada per the birth date of daughter Eliza; perhaps in Simcoe, Ontario.)

19 May 1851 Freeman and Jane Rose sell property to William Lyons; probably the balance of their land.

1851 a story of a pioneer sketch of Nathan Pegg, High Constable, he names Constable Freeman Rose injured in an incident. Daniel Hubbard found the following: E. A. Owen, Pioneer sketches of Long Point settlement: or Norfolk's foundation builders and their family genealogies (Toronto: W. Briggs, 1898), 360-362.

1851 Norfolk, Ontario, Canada a Freeman Rose is listed as grocer in an 1851 directory. January and April 1851 Freeman Rose is listed in Constable payrolls in Norfolk County, Ontario, Canada. March 1851 Talmon Rose died according to widow Hannah's petition to administrate estate.

1851 Canada census, family is not found, probably due to Talmon's death and the family relocating to Wisconsin. They were coincidentally missed on both the 1850 and 1851 census.

7 July 1851 Newspaper article found on newspapers.com His mother names Freeman Rose, because she claims after his father died he sold property for less than value and absconded with the money to the US.

A huge resource was discovered by a fellow genealogist in "History of Racine and Kenosha, Wisconsin." We took a road trip to Kenosha, Wisconsin in 2012 for further search.

February 1852 Kenosha, Wisconsin son Albert was born. 1880, 1900, and 1910 census state born in Wisconsin. No birth record located for him.

The 1st Baptist Church thankfully gave me access to the file cabinet containing the church's ancient records, including Mrs. Jane Rose's membership and Freeman Rose's subscription. Other family surnames for married daughters' families also were in the church records. March 1855. Mrs. Jane Rose membership by letter was accepted by 1st Baptist Church in Kenosha, Wisconsin. No copy of the letter was found.

1855 Wisconsin census index on ancestry.com Kenosha, Wisconsin lists Freeman Rose.

1858 Kenosha County, Wisconsin directory, listed "Rose, Freeman carpenter h Oak n Main."

4 June 1860 census in Kenosha, Kenosha, Wisconsin, states born abt 1815 no birth locations were given for any of the family. An additional person is included. Many names are initials. The Hannah M. Rose is listed out of order after the rest of the children, but also age 14. I speculate she could be Freeman's mother Hannah Rose. His daughter Hannah Mariah Rose is listed as H. M. Rose age 14. Since Talmon's widow was not located on the 1851 census, I believe Hannah Rose joined her son's family in Wisconsin and the enumerator erred in stating her age.

I'm also grateful to the Grand Master for allowing me access into the vault of the Kenosha Masonic Lodge where I found information for Freeman.

10 December 1860 Freeman Rose petitioned for membership into Kenosha Masonic Lodge.

1860 Freeman Rose listed as Alderman in the 2nd Ward per information on Rootsweb.

26 May 1861 Kenosha, Wisconsin daughter Hannah Mariah Rose died.

3 August 1866 in Kenosha, Wisconsin daughter Eliza is married in her father's home. Between 1866-1867 Freeman demitted from Kenosha Masonic Lodge, destination Avon, Rock Wisconsin.

27 August 1870 census Avon, Rock, Wisconsin, Freeman born abt 1814 in New York, Also in 1870 daughter Mary Elizabeth is married there.

"Dad (Harmonn Lee Rose) with a cigarette in his mouth, Mom Evelyn Mae (Swinhehart) Rose, my brother James Orion Rose and me, Catherine Ann (Rose) Klix. "

17 March 1871 Freeman re-admitted to Kenosha Masonic Lodge.

4 June 1871 Mrs. Jane Rose again admitted by letter to 1st Baptist Church, Kenosha, Wisconsin after their short move to Avon and back.

1875 Kenosha business directory listed in an ad as builder, etc. Res e s Main 5 s South, under Carpenters and Builders (same address) and Architect, carpenter and builder on Main Street, Kenosha, WI.

1879 Freeman again demitted from Kenosha Lodge due to move to Nebraska.

In 2013 we traveled to Nebraska where the Grandmaster of the Wakefield, Dixon, Nebraska Masonic Lodge helped me make copies of Freeman and my great uncle's Masonic membership. Others I met helped with their knowledge of the area, newspaper clippings, and cemetery location of my great uncle Talmon James Rose (aka James T. Rose).

9 June 1879 Spring Creek, Dixon, Nebraska Freeman demitted from Kenosha according to the Wakefield, Nebraska Masonic Lodge records.

Mom, myself, my brother, and my father taken at my wedding in 1999.

19 June 1880 census South Creek, Dixon, Nebraska, lists Freeman, Jane and their son James T. Rose family

3 June 1885 state census South Creek, Dixon, Nebraska lists Freeman Rose

22 February 1886 Spring Bank, Nebraska residence listed on Freeman's petition to join Masonic Lodge in Wakefield, Nebraska.

16 January 1886-1888 timber land property deed and transfer to James T. Rose. Freeman's residence given was Oelrichs, SD.

21 April 1888 demit granted from Wakefield, Nebraska Masonic Lodge. (No South Dakota membership found to date.)

4 March 1889 purchase of property in Oelrichs, SD.

7 March 1893 Oelrichs, SD property deed transferred to son Henry Freeman Rose and wife Mary.

Freeman died between 1893 and 1896. No obituary or probate found for Freeman Henry Rose in the local SD newspapers on microfilm or the Fall River County courthouse.

25 December 1896 Jane (Bailey) Rose obituary in 31 December 1896, Kenosha – The Telegraph – Courier her son-in-law M. H. Bacon (Mary Elizabeth's husband) reported she died in Oelrichs, South Dakota. Her husband predeceased her by "several years."

Freeman and Jane were buried in Oelrichs, Fall River County, South Dakota. No dates were on his or his wife's headstone. The caretaker for the Hillside Cemetery in Oelrichs had no records showing any birth or death dates for Freeman and Jane Rose. I took pictures of their memorials. Jane's headstone said June Rose. He told me the original cemetery was flooded and memorials were placed in the newer cemetery a couple of decades ago. He also stated not all the graves were exhumed and reinterred (probably including my ancestors).

Establishment of relationship to Talmon Rose was circumstantial information based on the attendance at Freeman and Jane's wedding, their property transfers, the newspaper account from Hannah, the possibility of Hannah Rose, Freeman's supposed mother, living with them during the 1860 Kenosha census. Also I noted the continuation of Freeman and Jane's children's names. The Talmon James Rose name is possibly a combination of Talmon Rose and Jane's possible father James Bailey.

I was still stumped about Talmon's parents until a bounty land file from the National Archives (DC) disclosed an application which had been transcribed as Salmon Rose but proved to be Talmon on closer examination. This finally includes my lineage from Robert and Margery Rose, immigrants from England to Wethersfield and Branford, Connecticut.

Federal Land RecordsLAND ENTRY FILES

Federal Land Records are part of Record Group 49. These records are held mainly by the Bureau of Land Management and were at the time the following were copied were at their facility in Springfield, Virginia. Members may be familiar with this agency by their online patent index. Patents have a file associated with it to establish the claim for patent. The following is part of the so-called 7 state index. We have extracted the Roses from this list.

How to read this (see the first in list):

Dear Mother

I have been thinking of you a good deal of late and remembering that I have not written to you but once or twice since I left home. I think sometimes that I am an undutiful son unworthy to have such a kind mother, but when I tell you what a good boy I have been I hope you will forgive me and I will try and do better in future. I have been very steady since I have been in the Army, using no profane language, whatever we have the privilege of going to church every Sabbath at the Christian Commission where we can hear a good sermon and also get plenty of Christian papers. I think that I am enjoying myself well as any one can that is in my position that is away from home and in an enemies country. I tell you dear Mother I shall know how to appreciate my loved home if I live to get back there once more, although I am not sorry that I enlisted. I am willing to serve my country at any time when it is in peril. I would like to have you write soon as convenient and tell me how Sam and Dan are getting along if they are good boys and go to school &c.

Our commanding General has issued an order giving furloughs to the soldier who dress the cleanest and look the best. there is four Batterys to compete with each other so you see our chances are rather slim. I had the honor to be the one from our Battery but having so many to compete with I did not get it. But my time is so near out that I do not care much about coming home until I can come to stay.

Give my best respects to all enquiring friends after keeping a good share for yourself. Tell father to write soon as convenient and remember me as ever your affectionate son

REUBEN ROSE WILL

The sad tale of a will that someone felt they had the right to take, probably for their own research, without thought of those who came after who would want to examine this will. The will of Reuben Rose is probably dated or at least proved in the year 1810 judging by the one before and after. in the will book. However, the will has been torn out of the record book. Our attempt to find the original probate packet for his estate failed. It may be that the same person took that, too. Yet, we were sent some years ago the following abstract but with the will missing we cannot vouch for its accuracy. [Attempts should be made to locate the original packet at the courthouse on the chance it was found.]

Will Book 1 p. 271, will of Reuben Rose

Will of Reuben Rose dated 9 Apr. 1810, proved 28 Sept. 1810, to son Reuben, real estate and wearing apparel, to daughters personal property, wife named in will. Children named: Reuben, Lucretia Eells, Damask Frisbie, Fanny Enos. [We were also told that there was a probate file showing death 24 Apr. 1810.] Further efforts should be made to locate the original probate file. Further information from an abstract in Gertrude A. Barber's Abstracts of Wills of Oneida County, New York, Vol. 1 1798-1822 pp. 1-75; Vol 2 1822-1832 vol. 1-68, copied 1939 from original records at courthouse, on p. 14 P 271, abstract of will of Reuben Rose of Westmoreland, dated 9 Apr. 1810, probated 29 Sept. 1810. Names children as above, adds that executor was son Reuben, and witnesses were James Dean, Theodore Sill, Amos Smith.

SAMUEL ADAM BURNEY ROSE

Sam Rose was the son of Bennet and Nancy (Burney) Rose of Lauderdale-Limestone Counties, Alabama, and grandson of Abner Rose of Surry County, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Alabama. Sam served in the Confederacy from Alabama. The family tradition is that this is the photo his mother carried with her, and later it was trimmed to fit in a locket.

(Editor's note: Sam Rose was the brother of William Jefferson Rose, great-grandfather of two Rose Family Association members: editor Seymour T. Rose and also of member Edward "Ted" Rose. William crossed the plains to California by wagon train in 1856 and died in 1879 in the Sierra Mountains doing what he originally came for, hunting for gold.)

A Problem of Rank

BREVETS

In an informative article by C. F. Eckhardt titled "A Problem in Rank," Civil War Times Illustrated, XXIX (January-February, 1991), 52-54) the author comments that it was said by an early historian "Nobody understood the brevet promotion when it was in use and nobody understands it today." According to the author of this article, "Brevet promotion, as officially defined, was 'promotion to a rank in the Army higher than the rank held in the parent regiment.' As pointed out by Eckhardt, this description seems to make sense to the modern reader, until, in the course of historical research, "one uncovers an unlikely creative called the 'brevet second lieutenant.' The title itself indicated there is no lower officer rank."
