Dear Readers,

We returned to California five weeks earlier this year so that your editor would have more time to get the files ready to ship to a permanent location. Because of the vast number of files, this is not an easy task! Each file is being examined, and new copies of reports inserted in each. By estimate, there are close to 2,000 files which include Family Files, locality files, etc. etc. These contain photocopies etc., notes from courthouses, courthouse reports, correspondence, etc. This is a collection that spans 50 years and will take up probably 40-50 boxes. We have no doubt that researchers will find it useful, but in the meantime it is a lot of work sorting, labeling, reprinting reports, etc.

It occurs to us that "new members" in the last few years may not be aware that from December 1880 to October 1999 we also published a quarterly Newsletter, in addition to the quarterly Rose Family Bulletin. Most of the members who joined since then do not realize the immense amount of information and photographs those Newsletters contained! We will transfer a set of those is also.

Please be sure to read the moving account on pages 5708-5709 by charter member Terry Lane Rose. We hope others will also write accounts of their parents, grandparents or great-grandparents to share so we get a sense of them as people.

We very much enjoyed attending the ROOSA reunion in Kingston, New York this past summer. We made so many trips to the Ulster County (and surrounding counties) courthouses during the years that it was wonderful to be there and meet some of the descendants. As many of you know, our irreplaceable David Brown, Project Administrator now deceased, who fortunately said "Yes" when your editor asked him so many years ago to head our DNA project, was of the Roosa family. There are many descendants of this very large family; some later evolved their name into Rose, while others retained Roosa.

Memberships are on the calendar year basis. All memberships for 2015 expire on December 31, 2015. Many of you have already renewed for 2016 so yours won't expire until December 31, 2016 but please check. If you haven't yet renewed, you can do so by mailing a check, or by emailing to us at christine@christine4Rose and we can send you an email through PAYPAL with a link for payment.

Also, we suggest that all members who have access to the online copies print out a copy when you access it. Otherwise, if your subscription lapses in the future for any reason you will still have copies.

Please have a wonderful holiday with family and friends, and know that we appreciate the support and help you all give to his effort. You have enriched our lives immensely. We wish for you and your families many blessings.

PA Power of Attorney

Hiram LeRoy "Roy" Rose

Roy Rose, as he was known, was born 3 August 1893 to James Monroe and his second wife Emma Effie (Eby) Rose. His father James Monroe Rose died in Sagle, Idaho.

This Rose family descend from Nancy Rose who is listed in the 1850 Census of Bates County, Missouri. She was evidently a widow at the time. Among her children was a son Hiram who was the grandfather of Roy Rose. Though nothing definitive is known of the husband of Nancy Rose, it is believed he was Dempsey Rose as he is named as father on the death certificate of William W. Rose. William is believed to be the same William listed with Nancy Rose in the 1850 census.

Archibald Johnson Rose

SALEDO, TEXAS AND PERSON COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

Howell Seymour² Rose (Anderson¹) was born ca 1808, either Caswell County, North Carolina or Person County, North Carolina. He died 22 June 1846 (or 1847?) age 37, probably in Randolph County, Missouri, and is buried in the Eldad Church Cemetery about 2 miles from a small town called Darksville, which is about 21 miles from Moberly, Missouri. The cemetery is in Randolph County, Missouri. He married, bond dated 19 November 1829, Caswell County, North Carolina VR, Mary Durham (bondsman or witness John W. Roan). She was born 1 March 1806, probably in North Carolina, and died 29 February 1884, Macon County, Missouri. She is buried in the Charitan Cemetery about 7 miles north of Callao, Macon County, Missouri. After the death of her husband she married 2nd, 4 June 1847, Macon County, Missouri VR, Jacob Lowe/Low. Her parentage unknown.

The Maj. Archibald Johnson Rose home, now a historic landmark, in Salado, Bell County, Texas.

Among the children of Howell Seymour Rose was a son Archibald Johnson Rose born 3 September 1830, died 13 December 1903. Archibald married Sallie Ann Austin and they lived in Bell County, Texas.

Nadine Brandon, who supplied this photo, also supplied a copy of "Pick a Rose in Salado" published in Southern Living, January 1996. This shows that Major Rose built the Greek Revival-style mansion in 1870. He kept only one room for guests. Later a purchaser, George Kolb, refurbished the mansion as a bed-and-breakfast.

This article further states that Archibald made his fortune in the California Gold Rush and lived further out on the Texas frontier before he settled in Salado.

Hopkins Rose

DARKE COUNTY, OHIO

Sometimes the "lack" of records can be explained by clerk errors. For many years the descendants of Hopkins Rose did not know that there was a valuable Bounty Land File on him in the National Archives for his service in the War of 1812. Around 1979 or so editor Christine and Rose Houston of Texas spent a week at the National Archives personally examining and abstracting over 400 of these Rose files. In doing so, a wonderful find was made when it was discovered that one Declaration in the file mistakenly showed this soldier as "Upkins" Rose instead of "Hopkins Rose" as all the other papers in the file indicated. This had caused an error in titling this file on the outside of the folder. When this was discovered we drew it to the attention of the NARA staff and the designation was corrected. And ... the descendants now had access to an amazing amount of important documentation of the file.

The "offending" affidavit in the file was one on which on the 11th of June 1851, Darke County, Ohio, Susanah Rose aged 56 made an affidavit that she was widow of "Upkins Rose deceased," that her husband volunteered at Morgan Town, Virginia, that she married him in Fayette County, Pennsylvania 22 May 1812 by Woodridge a Baptist Minister and that her name before marriage was Susannah Conner. Further, that her husband died in Fayette County, Ohio 9 October 1823. She signed by an X mark indicating that likely she was unable to correct the scribe's error in writing her husband's name was "Upkins" instead of "Hopkins".

[Hopkins Rose was a son of Ezekiel and Mary (Fidler) Rose of Hunterton County, New Jersey. He is part of the YDNA Group K with Long Island connections.]

GURSTLE ROSE BRANCH

Frederick⁵, William⁶ m Elizabeth Eaton, Isaac⁷ m Mary Ann Beckham, Zachariah Taylor⁸ m Mary Elizabeth Mabry, John William⁹ m Ina Mable Adams. Gurstle is a brother of Slater Rose.

This family is part of Group A1 of the YDNA project, that is, the family of William¹ Rose of Surry County, Virginia.

Surry County, North Carolina

The following was located by editors at the State Archives of North Carolina in Raleigh. This type of search entails going page by page or document by document among files but can often be rewarding. Bennet Rose was the son of John and Lucy (Bennett) Rose of King George and Stafford Counties, Virginia. Note that the court actions show the spelling as Bennet Rose. Though he is often shown and referred to as Bennett Rose, his own bounty land application file for War of 1812 service, in which he personally signed the affidavits, show his signature as Bennet Rose. This is editor's family. Other Rose Family Association members who are either Bennet Rose descendants or related to Roses connected with Bennet are: Edward "Ted" Rose, Gloria Hendrix, Mattie Mitchell, James Burtis Rose, Carole Horne, Sue Towery, Troy Rose, and Elena Thompson. If we missed an Association member with this connection let us know!

A Tribute to John Kenneth Rose

by charter member Terry Lane Rose

My dad John Kenneth Rose was the third child and first son of Luther Rose and Margaret Helms Rose. My dad had two sisters older and two younger. He was born May 17, 1909 in Stamford, Texas where his dad was working as a cowboy on a local ranch. My family had a tradition of "cowboying" when possible and farming when it wasn't. In 1922 they moved to Roff in the new state of Oklahoma where Grandpa farmed for a year. But the "Cowboy itch" caught up with him and they moved to Clay County, Texas where he worked on the Douthett Ranch, the largest in Clay County. While there, Luther lost his wife to blood poisoning (a result of childbirth) and a daughter to diphtheria.

The family then moved back to Oklahoma near Sulphur, to be close to Dad's Grandparents John H. and Sarah Rose. The youngest girl died of pneumonia soon after the move. Before Dad's eighth birthday he had lost his mother and two sisters.

John Kenneth Rose and Madge Lee (Dennis) Rose on wedding day, November 10, 1928 in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma.

My Grandpa remarried in 1917 to a 33 year old woman who had no children and had never been married. She did not like the three Rose children.

Soon the two girls ran off and got married at very young ages. When my Dad did not leave home after her son was born in 1920, she began to make life miserable for him.

Dad had dyslexia and/or astigmatism and could not learn to read in the schools of the time. They did not diagnose this in him until 1950, so they assumed he was retarded and told him after the 3rd grade to not come back.

The stepmother used this as an excuse to make him leave home, which he did at age fourteen.

For the next five years, my Dad worked on ranches all over west Texas and went on a few cattle drives into the panhandle. When not working on a ranch he would go stay with an uncle and aunt (Charlie and Ellie Birdwell) in Bluffdale, Texas. By 1927 the cowboy work was getting slow, so Dad migrated back to Murray County Oklahoma where they had lived previously after his mom died. Two of his Rose uncles, George and Charlie, had moved to the area and said he could stay with them.

Dad was 6' 1 3/4" tall and very athletic, 150 pounds and very agile on foot or on a horse. I think if he were young today, he would have been a track star as he could run fast and jump high. His agility got him a job threshing pecans (climbing into a big tree with a cane pole and knocking the nuts loose) for his future father-in-law, Ira Dennis. It was love at first sight for he and my mother Madge Lee Dennis Rose. They were married November 10, 1928 in Pauls Valley, Oklahoma. They had been married 51 years when my mom passed on December 13, 1979.

With my Mom having only an eighth grade education and my Dad having no education, the Depression years were rough on them. They lived the 'Grapes of Wrath'. My brother John was born in 1930 and my sister Margaret in 1933. Their childhood was bare bones. Dad did the best he could, kept food on the table and the children in school. During WWII they fared better. Dad had good wartime jobs in California and in Arizona where I was born in 1946.

To the left: Luther Isaiah Rose and wife Margaret Lee (Helms) Rose around Christmas 1904. Parents of John Kenneth Rose.

After the war we returned to Oklahoma where Dad bought a large farm in northeastern Oklahoma where I still live today. Dad and I raised cattle and horses for many years. He rode a horse every day, whether I did or not. It was the cowboy in him.

Dad had insisted that I go to college which I did and I became a history teacher. That occupation, with summers off, fit well with our ranching.

After Mom passed, Dad continued to live on the ranch enjoying his horses and the ranch life style. All that changed on October 8, 1990 when he walked in on two intruders in his home. They overpowered his 81-year-old body and killed him with his own gun. He was laid to rest beside my mom in Paoli, Oklahoma very near where they first met in 1928.

Editor's Note: Israel Rose was an early settler of Orange County, New York. DNA from a descendant places this family in Group K of the YDNA project, that is, the group of those with Long Island connections. This family left a number of records both in New York and later in Middlesex County, New Jersey. Our long-time member Harold Daniels, now deceased, did a huge amount of excellent research on this group of Roses. The "haunting" photo of one of the descendants of this family appears as part of the cover page of Christine Rose's Courthouse Research for Family Historians.

William W.² Rose (Francis M.¹), born ca 1809-1810, Tennessee, died, perhaps ca 1855-1856 in Texas (Civil War pension file of son Andrew J. Rose). He married, date and place unknown, Lucinda Hickman, born ca 1815, Tennessee, died 30 June 1900 (Civil War pension file of son Andrew J. Rose), died Giles County, Tennessee, her parentage unknown.

William W. Rose served in the Seminole War, and made application for land bounty (National Archives #55-80 WT 38374. On 2 December 1851, William W. Rose, resident of Giles County, Tennessee, states he was mustered in the War with Florida 4 July 1836 at Fayetteville, Tennessee, and discharged 14 January 1837 at New Orleans. On 18 December 1855, William W. Rose made an affidavit from Collin County, Texas, states he was resident near Fort Belknap in said state, was private in company commanded by Capt. James Gibson, 1st Reg. Mt. Vols., commanded by Col. Bradford in Seminole Indian War in Florida about 1836 or 7, etc. His affidavit was witnessed by John Flares and W.H. Caldwell.

Those who obtain the Bounty Land Application File of William W. Rose for his Seminole War service would find that he was awarded a Warrant 55-80-BLWT 38374. This complete file is available at the National Archives. However, once researchers get the appropriate file they should not stop there in their search. Go to gloreCORDS.blm.gov and search for the patent on the land. That can reveal whether family members obtained the patent, or whether they assigned the patent to others. It will also give the legal description where the land was located. In the instance of William W. Rose, by going to the website and conducting a search for William W. Rose in ANY STATE, and check both PATENTEE and WARRANTEE, and then going to the "Authority" on the form provided and scrolling down to what is marked as "Scrip ---- 1855" March 3, 1855: ScripWarrant Act of 1855 (10 Stat. 701) it was easy to locate. Why did I pick that item under "Authority"? That is the act cited in the Bounty Land file!

Mitchel Rose

CHEROKEE WAR

The above is one item of several in the Compiled Military Service Record (CMSR) of Mitchel Rose of the Cherokee War. The next step a researcher might take would be to use the above information to check for a pension file, Indian Wars. These individual cards in the CMSR are sometimes sparse but often can provide clues - at times a death date, a relative, where enrolled, etc. For example, one of the cards in this file show he enrolled June 25, 183- from Kingston for 12 mos. Another shows he was mustered in at Athens, Tennessee July 8, 1836.

Herman Rose

Editors found the obituary of Herman Rose in the Polk Library in Oshkosh, Wisconsin while doing research there. This obituary demonstrates well the value of these old notices, showing that he "was a native of German[y] and first saw the light of day on June 11, 1833, at Wecheslberg, Saxony, Germany, emigrating to the United States in 1859, coming direct to this city where he has since resided. Mr. Rose was a veteran of the civil war, enlisting in Co. E, 20th regiment, Wisconsin volunteer infantry ... [This continues with other personal information and includes the names of his survivors. The above card is a sample of what is found in "Index to Records Relating to War of 1812 Prisoners of War", M1747 micropublication of the National Archives. With the information on the card the researcher would be able to enlist the Archives' assistance in filling out a form to order the actual copy for examination, from Manuscript No. 94 p. 10. These are textual but are available from the Archives.

Dr. Erasmus T. Rose of Virginia and Tennessee

“REBEL” WHO APPEARS IN THE UNION PROVOST MARSHALL FILES

Editor located this information on Dr. Erasmus T. Rose among the little used Union Provost Marshall Files, National Archives. This again shows that considerable personal information can be found by branching out beyond the traditional pension and service files. Long-time member Thomas Rose of Missouri also found some valuable records on his Freeman Rose in these records.

From: M345 UNION PROVOST MARSHALS' FILE OF PAPERS RELATING TO INDIVIDUAL CIVILIANS, Roll 234 Rom-Ros: Erasmus T. Rose Citizen Resides in Keokok Iowa, formerly in Memphis Tenn. Probably a rebel emissary.”

Dr. Erasmus T. Rose Office of Prov. Marshal, St. Louis, July 17th 1862

...that about the 15th of June, 1861, I was obliged to leave Memphis, because of my union sentiments, while there I saw Dr. Erasmus T. Rose, who states to me that he belonged to a company of sappers & miners in the rebel army. He was in charge of the ---? that had been stolen by the rebels from the U.S. ---? of Baton Rouge. On my return to Memphis some ---? weeks ago I inquired about him, and was told that he had not been ---? for six or eight months --?. last evening I was told that a person answering to that name and description of said Erasmus T. Rose had been living for the last six or eight months in Keokuk, Iowa. He is undoubtedly a Virginian by birth; but I understand he represents himself as having been born in Pennsylvania or New York. He has reside for several years in Memphis, but I learn that he denied? ever living ---? in the ---? I believe him to be a rebel emissary and I think the public ---? requires that he be ---? watched.

Signed: Chas. M. Scott, Sworn to & subscribed before me this 17th day of July 1862. Wm. R. McCracken, Notary Public

Editor's note: Erasmus T. Rose was a son of Dr. Robert H. Rose (who married Frances Madison, sister of Pres. James Madison), grandson of Col. Hugh Rose, and a great-grandson of Rev. Robert Rose of Morayshire, Scotland and Colonial Virginia. Members will be interested to know that Erasmus' brother James Madison Rose was at the Alamo at the time of the fall and lost his life there. For many years there was dispute about this, some claiming that "J. M. Rose" on the monument was instead "L. M. Rose" (Louis Moses Rose) who was a survivor of the Alamo.

However, editor located documents proving James Madison Rose did indeed die at the Alamo: On 24 October 1853 Hugh F. Rose, Erasmus T. Rose and Saml Rose certified that "Our Brother James M. Rose at the time he left Lake Providence in the winter of 1835 - by the Way of Alexandria Louisiana on his route to Nacogdoches Texas where he joined the Company of David Crocket in the Military service of Texas and was afterwards killed at the fall of the Alamo according to the best of our recollection was a man of Sangam--? temperment about thirty years of age but under--? sallow by Continual attacks of Chill & fever before he went to Texas, was partially bald on the loss of the head, had Sandy Eyes light Blue or Grey, Broad shouldered inclined to round and would weigh when in flesh about One hundred & sixty pounds - was apt to stammer when at all Confused with Eye Brows heavy and light Coloured - and course features... The Baker Store Ledger, Mitchell County, North Carolina

Kathy Gunter Sullivan, CG sometime ago sent some interesting photocopies of a ledger in possession of the Mitchell County Hisytorical Society in Bakersville, North Carolina. The majority of the entries are 1832-1834, but three are later accounts. This ledger includes the names of some Roses: Elias Rose, Willson Rose, Bartley Rose and John Rose among others of different surnames. Anyone interested in the Roses of this county will want to pursue this!

It appears likely this Bartley Rose, named above, could be Bartley who married probably around 1835 in either North Carolina or Tennessee to Rebecca (Short) Birchfield, widow of Jerry Birchfield (Jeremiah Birchfield). After her death he married 2ndly, 9 November 1885, recorded in McDowell County, West Virginia records in Mar. Vol. I p. 114 line 40, Bartley Rose, age 70, widow, born in "Burk"? (possibly Bunk?) Co., N.C., Parents Isreal and Elizabeth Rose. He married Mary Harrison, age 45, widow, born in --- [unreadable] Co., Va., parents: Elijah and Elizabeth, married by Eli B. Rose." It is possible that she is the Polly Blankenship age 36 b. Va., listed as his housekeeper in the 1880 census of McDowell Co., West Virginia.

Rose Station: Historic Landmark

KERN COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

Wm. B. Rose, in 1875, a mile east, built an adobe stage station on the site of the Overland Mail Way Station established 1858. From 1883 to 1885 site was known as Rancho Canoa (trough) originally Vaquero Camp of Sebastian Indian Reservation. Rose Station was a stockman's headquarters, Post Office and polling place. Dedicated November 16, 1941, Kern County, California Historical Landmark.

This was provided by long-time member, the late Tom Rose of San Jose (brother of member Jack Rose of Conway, New Hampshire), who said this is at the foot of the well-known "Grapevine" in Wheeler Ridge on the west side of the exchange. Tom and Jack's Rose family are based in Jamaica but Tom always sent Rose items of interest from along their travels.

John Nelson Rose died in Illinois

SON OF IRA B. AND JULIA
(MARTIN) ROSE

This obituary was published in The Daily Breeze, Taylorsville, Illinois, Sat. May 13, 1916:

J. N. ROSE DIED IN PALMER

Aged Farmer will be Buried in Saybrook

John Nelson Rose died this morning...at the home of his son, I. T. Rose of near Palmer...services will be held from the United Brethren church there. Interment will follow in the Sabrook cemetery. Mr. Rose was born in Kentucky on January 31, 1842 and at his death was aged 74 years, 3 months and 12 days. He moved to Palmer last December from Reynolds, N.D...His wife preceded him in death in February, 1895, at Saybrook. He had been a member of the United Brethren church for the past 25 years...survived by two daughters in Saybrook, one son in Reynolds and Miss Mollie Rose and I. T. Rose of Palmer, Lillie B. Stringer and Grace V. Stringer, both of Caybrook (sic?), G. R. Rose of Reynolds, also one brother of Owanco and one brother in Kansas.

Editor's Note: John Nelson Rose was the son of Ira B. and Julia (Martin) Rose of Clark and McLean Counties, Illinois. Ira B. was born 6 October 1805 in New York and died 3 December 1880 in Clark County, Illinois. From a biography in Biographical Record of Hamilton County, Iowa, p. 488, it shows Ira B. born in Kentucky. This appears to be an error as census also supports New York. From this source he spent his youth near Rochester, was a carpenter, and removed to Illinois in 1831.

July 8, 1965 (evidently issue of newspaper, name unknown)

Charles H. Rose, rural mail carrier for thirty-three and a half years at the Shiloh Post Office, was given an honorary supper at the Shiloh Community Center, Monday, June 28 ... [condensed from a clipping sent by Paul Waddell which he received from Karen Rogers.]

TRAGIC STORY ... Member David L. Rose of Fredericksburg sent a news item from The Free Lance of Fredericksburg, Va. of September 1, 2015. In a story by-lined by Bruce Schreiner of AP. A 19-year-old fatally shot his mother, step-father and grandmother and then walked to the trailer of his grandfather Curtis Rose to report it.

Mary Van Alstyne and Raymond VanAlstyne [now deceased] at a family wedding in 1979. We had a wonderful visit with Mary and Ray many years ago in Batavia, New York. Mary's search is on the Joshua Rose family of Schoharie County, New York. Mary did a tremendous amount of research not only Rose but other lines in that area.

Lt. Col. Richard Hughes and wife Michelle (Strella) Hughes. Michelle is the daughter of the late Ed and Lee Strella and descendant of Robert¹ Rose of Wethersfield and Branford, Connecticut. This photo was taken many years ago. Ed and Lee joined the Rose Family Association group on one of our trips to Kilravock, Scotland. We all enjoyed it very much!

ROSE SCRAPBOOKS

MOST PHOTOS FROM MANY YEARS AGO

Elmer Francis Rose (brother of now deceased member Arlo Rose) celebrating a birthday. It was not until long after member Arlo Rose died that we were able to prove by YDNA that his ancestor Benjamin Rose (w. Mary) of Robertson County, Tennessee was related to editor's family of John and Lucy (Bennet) Rose of King George and Stafford Counties, Virginia and Bennet Rose of North Carolina. We were very happy to personally meet Arlo and his wife Shirley at more than one of our Rose conferences. He was immensely interested in his family and would so have enjoyed learning of the DNA connection. [Arlo is not shown in the above photo.]

Taken in Texas June 1964, children of John Samuel Rose, Grandchildren of William J. Rose, great-grandchildren of Alfred Alexander Rose, g.g.g.grandchildren of Bennet Rose, and g.g.g.g.grandchildren of Abner Rose of North Carolina, Tennessee and Alabama.

From the Mailbag

From member Thomas M. Rose of Richmond, VA, an amazing link at ancestry.com for U.S., Social Security Applications and Claims Index, 1936-2007. This database will list for deceased persons their changes made in SS such as name changes (when married), etc. Has an amazing number of clues when these changes were made.

From Karen Kline another great site. Go to statelibrary.ncdcr.gov and then to Online Collection and pick Digital Collections. From their choose Rose Family Bible Collections to see images of those in their collection. Or, go to www.digital.ncdcr.gov and then click on "Family Records" at the bottom of the page.

Joseph Benson Rose I views bones of Christopher Columbus

Member J. Benson Rose IV- sent fascinating and lengthy detailed accounts about his ancestor's trip in December 1887-February 1888 to San Domingo city. As written at the time: "One day Mr. Astwood proposed to show me the remains of Christopher Columbus ... general skepticism (of others) made me doubtful until I received a summons from the American consul to be at the cathedral on a certain day ... [the cathedral] in the roman style, and it has withstood the storms of the tropics for more than three centuries. It is in this cathedral that the remains of Columbus lie ... many of the officials of the city were present to witness the opening of the casket ... this was the most interesting part of my visit to the island of San Domingo though everything was pleasant to one who lived in a city all his life ..." A short version of this can be seen in The Osage County Chronicle (Burlington, Kansas) issue of 3 September 1891 page 6. Other lengthier accounts have been published. Benson also cites a newspaper article July 12, 1891 in the Herald, Chicago which may be available online. Try a search with keywords "Columbus" AND "bones" AND "San Domingo" or similar terms to read fascinating material.

BOOK OFFERED FOR SALE

Kerynne Sbrocchi at ksbro@hotmail.com sent an email that she had a book Their Own Dear Days signed and written by Olive Hall and published in 1992. It is an historical/genealogical account of Fiddleford in Dorset, it's people and their descendants, it's buildings and farms. There is particular reference to Thomas and Jane Rose and their children leaving England to sail to Australia. Email to her if you have an interest in purchasing this book if she still has it available.

In Memoriam

Anna Rose Houston, known as "Rose," died in Texas at age 89 on 30 October 2013. She was preceded in death by her husband Wilburn Collins "Tex" Houston, and also by her mother Roxie Ann Rose and her father John Harold Dingle. She was born in Shreveport, Louisiana December 7, 1923. Rose was a charter member of the Association and worked diligently for months on extracting all the 1850 census on ROSE before these were ever available on computers. She also accompanied editor Christine for a week at the National Archives in 1979 to abstract over 400 Rose bounty land files which solved so many genealogical problems for many. The last time we saw Rose was on a visit to her home in Smithville, Texas when health had greatly diminished her genealogical activities. She was a wonderful friend, and always ready with a huge smile. Our efforts to find Rose were unsuccessful until recently when we were saddened to learn of her passing.
