Dear Readers,

RENEWALS: So that no one would miss their issue we sent this March issue to all who were members in 2010. Please check your label. If it shows 2010 at the top we had not received your renewal by mid-February. Please do send it - we need every one of our members in order to continue publication!

Soon it will be spring with more activities to take our time. Winter is traditionally the time of year when the heaviest amount of research on families is conducted. Do take the time, if you can, to get your findings into some type of compiled form. Even if it is just for your family, the coming generations will be exceedingly thankful for the efforts you have expended. We should all reflect on what it would have meant to us, when we started, if we had in our hands some compiled family records based on research our grandparents had conducted. It would have given us something on which to build. Let's do that for our grandchildren, too.

We thank all of you who contributed this year (and in the past) to the War of 1812 project of either filming or scanning the War of 1812 pension files. The Rose Family Association made two donations to the NARA Malcolm Stern Fund in the names of members in the past few months - one of $93.00 (donated with 2010 renewals) and one of $119.00. The latter was specifically donated by members with their 2011 renewals in memory of Marsha Hoffman Rising, CG, FASG, well known in the genealogical community. Every one of your contributions will assist in that project.

Please remember to send photos. We enjoy seeing those of members, as well as ancestors, and it adds immeasurably to the enjoying of the issues.

Enjoy your spring!

Christine and Seymour Rose

All officers are mentioned on "The Officer Down Memorial Page, Inc. It states that Marshal Rose had been in law enforcement for 18 years. De Vol was a member of the Karpis-Barker Gang.

Marshal Rose was shot and killed while he and another marshal questioned a man in connection with a gas station robbery. During the questioning the suspect shot Marshal Rose and the other officer before escaping into nearby woods.

In 1933 the suspect was sentenced to life in prison for the murders of Patrolman Ira Evans and Patrolman Leo Gorski, both of the Minneapolis, Minnesota, Police Department, on December 16, 1932. In 1934 the suspect was believed to have gone insane and was transferred to a state hospital. Two years later he led an escape of 15 inmates and continued to rob banks. On July 8, 1936, he shot and killed Officer Cal Palmer, of the Enid, Oklahoma, Police Department, after getting drunk in a local bar. Marshal Rose had been in law enforcement for 18 years and was survived by his wife and six children.

Halifax County, North Carolina Roses in the Revolution

by Judy Henry

Member Judy Henry has devoted an enormous amount of time during the years in a study of this North Carolina family. Here she shares with us her efforts to get him successfully established with the DAR.

William Rose, Sr. and his son William Rose, Jr. of Halifax County, North Carolina have been accepted as Revolutionary Patriots by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Records have also been found for Elisha Rose, another son of William Rose, Sr.

The process of proving service started with two Halifax County, North Carolina letters in the Colonial and State Papers of North Carolina which mention a William Rose acting as a wagon master in 1781. On June 23, 1781 Joshua Potts to General Sumner in Harrisburgh stating that, "Mr. John Wood...hath acted with us, sometime, as wagon Master, and is recommend as such by Col. Long..." "Mr. William Rose hath also acted in like capacity, should you have occasion for another Rose will go on with the Edenton drafts." Col. Nicholas Long wrote to General Sumner from Halifax on November 19th, 1781 stating, "Concerning Supplies sent your Brigade, I inform you that since you saw Rose, with five Waggons on the way, Four more have been sent from this place..."

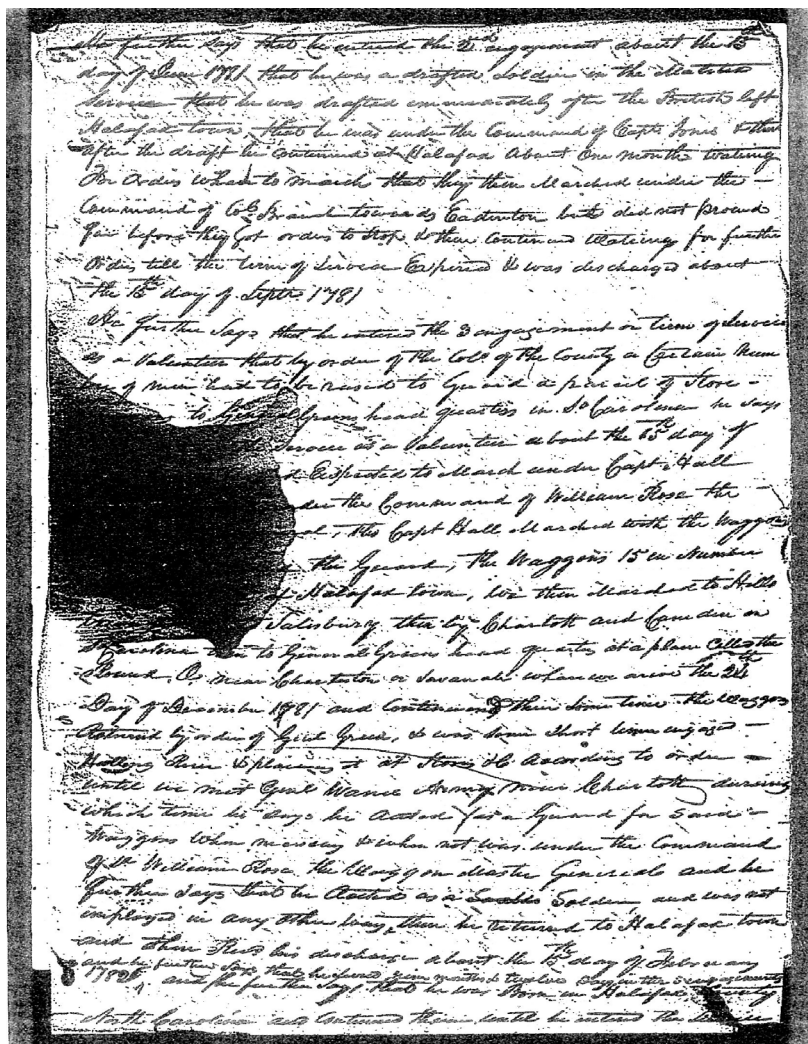

The Roses had a neighbor named Nicholas Long and a bit of research on-line revealed that he was the Deputy Quartermaster General for North Carolina responsible for an arms factory at Halifax which "employed three armourers, four blacksmiths, nine carpenters, three tailors, twenty wagoners, and four wagonmakers.

The next piece of the puzzle was finding a pension for a Halifax Soldier, Isaac Carpenter, who guarded wagons in South Carolina, serving under William Rose, Carpenter states that he "acted as a guard for said waggons when marching and when not under the command of Capt William Rose the waggon master general..." On his third tour, Carpenter says, "part of my time under William Rose who as coll of the waggon master general" In this case the term general just means the person in charge and Rose was probably a civilian, rather than a soldier.

On a trip to the North Carolina archives Revolutionary pay vouchers were found for William Rose, William Rose, Jr. and Elisha Rose all of Halifax County. These were issued for contributions to the cause, as well as for military service. It was fortunate that three Roses received vouchers with consecutive numbers on the same day, making it plausible that they were family members who had gone together to redeem the vouchers, which were probably used to pay taxes. They are also found together in deeds and tax records of the county, proving their residence and connection to each other.

Discovered after submitting DAR papers were the published North Carolina Revolutionary record books by Wynnette Parks Haun which included a line linking W. Rose and N. Long. It states: W. Rose – W. C. & Sups. Actr. under N. Long. The letters W. C. may stand for Wagon Conductor. Writing to the North Carolina Archives for Revolutionary records for William Rose netted copies of original records not discovered on the visit there.

William Rose, Jr. was credited by DAR for patriotic service based on one Revolutionary Voucher. A William Rose appears on a list of Halifax Soldiers in 1785. This is a list of the younger men of the community who likely served in the militia. It includes a Rose son-in-law, who has DAR credit for service in the militia, and Rose neighbors, but because William Rose, Sr. may have still been alive at that time, it cannot be proven to be William Rose, Jr. The use of Jr. in that time period, only indicated a younger person with the same name and did not prove a relationship. Because many Halifax records have not survived for this period, various deeds and other circumstantial evidence was used to provide a "reasonable" indication that William Rose, Jr. was the son of William Rose, Sr.

Elisha Rose, another son of William Rose, Sr., is mentioned as a Captain in North Carolina Militia organized at Halifax in the summer 1780 in the pension of Philip Adams, as well as three vouchers. There is a record proving Elisha as the son of William Rose, Sr. of Halifax North Carolina, so his descendants should easily be able to prove his Revolutionary service.

The transcribed, searchable Revolutionary Pension records found at <http://www.southerncampaigns.org> are one of the most exciting new contributions to Revolutionary War research. Though they are considered secondary sources they can provide clues to Revolutionary service and provide a fascinating picture into the history of the period.

Amasa L. Rose

YANTIC CEMETERY, NORWICH, CONNECTICUT

Norman R. Freyer member #2722F01 tells us that a number of years ago he transcribed the diaries of his great-grandfather Frank R. Rose. His entry on Saturday, February 28, 1880, notes that it was "cloudy", and "Father (Reuben Palmer Rose) went to Hanover to see Amasa Rose." Norm adds that our book, Descendants of Robert Rose of Branford & Wethersfield, CT shows that the father of Amasa was John Loomis Rose (1800 - 1860), and that the father of Reuben was William Palmer Rose (1819 - 1876). John Loomis Rose and William Palmer Rose were half-brothers. So Amasa and Reuben, as cousins, did continue to maintain contact - they lived only about 8 miles apart.

Norm continues: "At any rate, during the transcription of the diaries, I went to the Yantic Cemetery in Norwich, CT to visit the grave site of Reuben Palmer Rose and the other members of his family. As I stood there looking at some of the engraved names on one side of the stone, my eyes were drawn to another stone with an obelisk across the cemetery lane in another plot. It was the grave site of Amasa L. Rose and his family. In addition to Amasa, those buried in the plot are his first wife, Lucy Ann Armstrong, and his second wife, Jane S. Symes; and his son John Loomis Rose. I didn't note another engraving for a second son that died in infancy." Thanks Norman for sharing the photo!

In Memoriam

Long-time member Harold W. Daniels formerly of new Jersey but in later years of Longmeadow, Massachusetts died November 12, 2008. Harold did a tremendous amount of research on his Roses, descendants of Israel Rose of Orange County, New York.

Lt. Col. (Ret.) Durward Brandon, member #2021B93, died August 18, 2010 in Fredericksburg, Texas. He was son of John Richard Brandon and Willie Mabel Rose Brandon. He married Nardine Hirashima (member #1883B93). Durward enlisted in the U. S. Army and later re-enlisted in the U. S. Air Force and served a total of over 32 years. He and his wife were very interested in researching the family of John Rose of Newton County, Missouri.

Member Barbara Ann Harris #3222H09 with her husband Stanley Mark Harris (now deceased), her daughter, Cathy, her husband, Scott Hendricks, and their children, Kyan, Camdyn, and Kellen.

Barbara Ann Harris is the daughter of David Earl and Joy Lucille (Register) Woodard. She married Stanley Mark Harris and they have a daughter Catherine Lacey and grandchildren. Barbara, whose husband passed away a few months ago, tells us that she is a retired teacher and interested in scrapbooking, genealogy, crocheting, and playing with her grandchildren. She graduated from the University of Houston and taught in Baker and Duval County, Florida for thirty-six years. She is a member of Lakeshore United Methodist, Gamma Sigma Sigma and Alpha Delta Kappa. She and her husband Stanley live in Jacksonville, Florida.

Since Barbara joined we were able to advance her search two generations. Her family sheets in a 2010 issue showed her line back to Charles A. Rose born of John and Jenetta Rose of Ontario County, New York.

From the Mailbag

We are sharing a letter from Marsha Snelling for this is very important for all of us to keep in mind. Unfortunately, though there is considerable material on the web of value to genealogists, one of the biggest "failings" are the constructed genealogies that are posted. Some are excellent, but far too many have no basis as will be demonstrated in the following letter. It is frustrating to us all. It is even more detrimental to the novices who aren't aware of those failings and can spend years constructing the wrong family.

Dear Christine,

Just wanted to drop you a note about some TREES I have recently found that have grabbed our research for our John Rose and forced it to fit their John Ruse. Connecting with our Rebecca Goodin as one of his wives & listing the children from both of our John Rose's marriages. I found no less than 12 TREES on Ancestry with the info, What a mess. Each TREE probably copying the other so hard to tell where it started.

If any of them had taken the time to do their own research, they would have clearly seen that these two men were not the same; as both men are alive during the same timeframe and living in Iowa.

John Ruse was on the 1850,1856,1860 Sidney, Fremont Co, Iowa census with his last wife & several of his children are either living with them or next door.

Our John Rose was in Taylor & Page counties of Iowa during the same time.

If there is a way you can note that these two men are not the same on your database, that would be wonderful. Since you are the largest keeper of ROSE research, I am sure the question will come up sooner or later.

Thank you for all you do in keeping these ROSE family straight,

Marsha [of El Cajon, California]

Member Annetta Walker #2368R98 tells us that Douglas Lee Rose whose obituary and photo appeared in our Rose Family Bulletin September 2010 page 5380 was her brother. She says that there was a fuller obituary of him in the Marshfield Mail, Webster County, Missouri. He was born July 8, 1928 in Vinita, Okla., and died April 19, 2008 in Springfield, Missouri. He was married to Wilma Mae Saunders December 30, 1950, and had four children. He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, Wilma, one son, Robert Edward Rose, brothers, Arthur Rose and Phillip Rose, and others. He is survived by daughter Cynthia Gail Rose of Stafford, sons Oscar Lee Rose of Stafford and Charles Eugene Rose of Marshfield, and by sisters Annetta Walker of Stafford, Martha Walker of Springfield, Jossie Walker of Stafford, and Ruth Forbis of Springfield, also brother Sam Rose of Stafford, and others. Funeral services were held at the Day Funeral Home in Marshfield, with burial in Dishman Cemetery in Stafford. Military honors were provided as he for his service in the U.S. Air Force.

Stephen Rose

OF MACOUPIN COUNTY, ILLINOIS

Stephen Rose was born about 1847 to Winston C. and Mary Y. (Maddy) Rose. His father Winston died 4 July 1848 during the War with Mexico. Very little is known of this Rose family though descendant Gina Ferrara[HAMMERLE?] has this photo which she believes was taken about 1870-75.

Randolph County, North Carolina

A list combined from marriages sent by charter member Joan Rose #0367R81 and Floyd Legan #0450L81. We were not sent the book and page number on all of these but those interested in these families can check the courthouse for their early marriage registers.
