Sarepta (Rose) Dickinson of the Broome County, New York Rose family

To the left, Rockwell Dickinson. To the right, Sarepta (Rose) Dickinson, wife of Rockwell. Sarepta was the daughter of John and Catey (Wheeler) Rose of Broome County, New York. John Rose (whose first wife was Lucy Boardman) was born ca 1740 and served in the Revolutionary War. His pension file and a subsequent Bounty Land scrip file provide considerable information, as did other records. (A report on the John Rose family is available from the Rose Family Association - go to www.RoseFamilyAssociation.com.)

This family of John Rose is part of Group T of the DNA project and is connected with the ROOSA families

The above marvelous photos were obtained by John Wood from Megan H. Meharg of mharrismeharg@yahoo.com. She says that she received them from her great-grandfather. .

Dear Readers,

In RFB March 2013 page 5431 we published three photos from the Rose Family Graveyard in Orange County, New York. We try to always include the name of the person who submitted photos, but somehow that line was omitted. They were submitted by Christine Howard of Shelton, Washington who is a dedicated researcher.

CHANGE: Patrick Rose, member #2064R94, who submitted the article titled "A Branch of the Robert1 Rose family of New England" (see pages 5466- 5467: the penultimate paragraph on page 5467) of the June 2013 Rose Family Bulletin, would like to make a change in the paragraph that read: "Our closest genetic match has been with James Orion Rose, found from the 111 marker test. I have speculated with Rose Klix that James Orion Rose was the first child of William Walton Rose." Patrick would like to change the above paragraph in his article to now read: "Our closest genetic match has been with James Orion Rose, found from the 111 marker test. I have speculated with Rose Klix that the oldest known ancestor of James Orion Rose, Freeman Henry Rose, was the first child of William Walton Rose."

CHANGE: In the June issue page 5473 we published member Cindy Coffell's family tree. She tells us that she found new updated information; her grandmother Olive Letha Rose married Jochim Walter Schnack (not Walter J. Schnack). He did have a son by the name of Walter J. Schnack.

Member Thomas Rose #2495R99 of Columbia, Missouri, sent a link to a most interesting article on the Scottish Roses.

We are delighted to have our updated website up and with a special "Members Only" Section. This will allow members to receive their issues in a timely manner and not have to wait 3-4 weeks for bulk delivery. Our aim will be to have the issue posted within the first five days of the month due, that is, March, June, September and December. We are on the calendar year basis so all members, regardless of when they join, will receive all issues for that calendar year. As time goes on we plan to add more items to the Members Only section. For those who do not have a computer we will mail copies so be sure to let us know. Also, it will be very important in the future to let us know right away when you change your email address.

This is traditionally the time of year when people are home from their summer activities and trips, and eagerly embrace their genealogical studies again. With so much more available on the Internet now with newspapers, etc., let's hope we can all make new discoveries!

Long island Rose to Santa Clara County, California

Abraham Rose was born 15 January 1835 in New York City, the son of Abraham Rose of Long Island and his wife Ann Wilson. He died 1898 in Santa Clara County, California.

Estate of Abigail Rose

WOODBURY, CONNECTICUT

ABIGAIL ROSE. Woodbury. 1775. #3832. Woodbury P.D.

DISTRIBUTION: Of widow Abigail Rose, late of Woodbury decd, her late husband Mr. Timothy Rose, late of Woodbury, decd, he left will, 2 sons Timothy Rose and Samuel Rose. Distribution 24 Mar. 1775.

INVENTORY: 24 Mar. 1775. Total L-132.9.93. Ret'd 6 Feb. 1776.

Will of Abigail Rose of town of Woodbury, co. of Litchfield, whole estate to my only son Samuel Rose. If he should die before he comes of age, whole of estate equally divided between my three brothers Israel, Samuel and Daniel Linley. Appoint Mr. James Frisby my neighbor to be sole executor. Dated: 7 Sept. 1774. Signed: Abigail Rose. wit.: Joseph? R.? Bellamy, Jane Kasson, Abigail Weller. Proved: Mar. 22, 1775 by Jane Kasson and Abigail Weller and 3 Apr. 1775 by Joseph Bellamy.

Genesee County, New York

Copied at the courthouse.

Ann Rose, Adm. Bk 5 p 446
Ann Rose, died intestate, petition of William S. Rose of Town of LeRoy, he is son of Ann Rose, who died 13 Apr. 1884 at LeRoy, and she left: William S. Rose, her son, your petitioner, of LeRoy, Genesee Co., who petitions for letters to be granted to him and Henry Steuben. Dated 21 Apr. 1884. Signed: William S. Rose.

Adm. Bk 6 p. 60, petition of Henry Steuben in above estate, of Town of LeRoy, a creditor of Ann Rose, who died 1 Apr. 1884 at LeRoy and left no kindred entitled to her estate. Dated: 25 Feb. 1885.

Note: It is noted that there appears to be a discrepancy in the above. William S. Rose petitioned that he was her son, and a year later Henry Steuben as a creditor petitioned stating she left no kindred. It may be that William S. Rose died in the interim. The original packet should be examined for further clues, and the two petitions re-read carefully.

ENGAGEMENT

Engaged: Chelsea Brooke Doss and John Williams Rose announce their engagement. She is the daughter of Jeff and Beth Doss of Christiana and the granddaughter of Dorothy and Delton Doss of Lafayette, Davis and Brenda Maxey of Red Boiling Springs and Roy Bilbrey of Lafayette. The future bridegroom is a native of Cookeville, son of Betty Williams Rose of Cookeville and the late Jerry Lancaster Rose. He lives on and operates a working family farm in Smith and DeKalb County, Tennessee that has been in operation since 1790. [Sent by member Martha Sue Broyles; condensed from a lengthy announcement on p. C2 of the Herald-Citizen of Cookeville, Tennessee, January 2, 2011.

ANNIVERSARY: "Rose family tree has long, long marriage roots." Article by Frank Haight Jr., The Examiner, tells of four of the Roses' six living children and their spouses have already been married at least 50 years...John and Elverhe Ure of Deepwater, Mo., will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary in 1995. The first of the Rose children to tie the nuptial knot was Ferrill Rose who married his wife Edna Feb. 67, 1937 in Kansas City. The couple live in Florence, Mo. Five months later, June 12, 1937, Gerry Rose married Rev. Arthur Lickey in Liberty, Mo. Edwin Rose and his wife Joyce were married Mar. 23, 1943 in Kansas City where they currently live. The only living Rose sibling not married 50 years is Martha Rose Shrimpton of Kansas City whose husband died 30 years ago. [Condensed from The Independence Examiner of August 22, 1995, Independence, Mo., sent by Judy Carlson. These are members of her family. Judy is a descendant of the Micajah Rose family of Pope County, Illinois and Edgecombe County, North Carolina.

Robert Rose of Branford descendant of NE family

Rose Klix #2840R02 sent along (with permission) some items sent to her by Sterling Clack. These concern family #509 in Christine Rose's Descendants of Robert Rose of Branford and Wethersfield, Connecticut (San Jose, Calif.: Rose Family Assn., 1983) p. 377. They are two burial permits:

Norman Rose d. Feb. 17, 1929, aged 84y 3m 9d, resident of No. Sunderland, Mass., permit issued to Leon E. Rose of No. Sunderland. Signed: William E. Clark.

The other is for his known son, Leon Edward Rose who died Jan. 6, 1955, permit issued to Roy D. McCarthy. The permit was for the removal from Greenfield (Mass.) to No. Sunderland and was signed by Marion Lyman, Burial Agent.

Thanks to Rose Klix for watching for and finding items that add to the book on this family! She has researched exhaustively in trying to establish the facts of her own descent to this early New England family.

"Pete" Rose, the Baseball Player

The Association has often been asked to which family Pete Rose was connected. Letters to him in the 1980s were unanswered, but based on the obituary of his father, and other information and combining that with the 1910 and 1920 census of Hamilton County, Ohio, in Cincinnati, we have concluded that his father was named Harry "Pete." Pete is the Harry Rose aged 7 listed as step-son in the home of Harry Sams age 34 born Ohio and his wife Eva Sams age 29. In the 1910 census of Hamilton County, Pete's father Harry is listed as age 24, born Ohio, in the home of Henry Rose Sr. who was 54 born Germany. Henry immigrated in 1887 and was naturalized.

Pete Rose had a brother William Rose, and a half-sister Eveline Rose, The latter, we are told, married a Truss.

My Rose Family: Eusebius Milton Rose

BY IRMA CLOSE PROVINCE

This account was submitted in the 1980s by Irma Close Province, a member of the Rose Family Association, in a Rose Heritage project. Her ancestor Eusebius Rose was a descendant of Ezekiel Rose of Washington County, Pennsylvania, and Roseville, Ohio. He was a son of Alvah Buckingham³ Rose (Ezekiel² Ezekiel¹). The photo that Irma submitted was a very dark photocopy but is included here to give the family an idea of what these family members looked like. Irma's account:

Eusebius Milton Rose, youngest son of Alvah B. and Margaret Ann Stewart Rose, was born 9 February 1857, near Riverside, Iowa. His father, Alvah B., was born 7 December 1816 according to family records, and was a son of Ezekiel Rose Jr. and his wife Sarah Thrap. Alvah B. and Sarah were married in Zanesville, Ohio on 15 September 1818, moving to Washington County, Iowa, in 1839. their children, in birth order, were: Eliza Cole Hardy, John (died young), Hannah E. Glasgow, Columbus J., Joseph R., John Abram, Euphrates Alvah, Mary Ellen (Ellia) Maurer and Eusebius Milton.

Eusebius grew to manhood on his father's Iowa farm and on 21 August 1877 he married to Susan C. Whittington, daughter of Henry C. and Margaret (Boyer) Whittington. They continued to live in Washington and Shelby counties in Iowa until the fall of 1887, when they moved to Rush County, Kansas. Together they faced the hardships of pioneer life with great courage and faith in God. To this union seven children were born: Stewart Irven, Carl Lester, Lucina Margaret Close, Alvah B., Herby E. (died in infancy), Harold Raymond "Harley", and Menetta Bessie Shepherd.

For many years they made their home near Hargrave, Kansas. One of the first things Eusebius did after coming to Rush County was to help organize a Methodist class at the Hillsdale school house under the leadership of Rev. Bell. Later this class disbanded and he and his family became members of the Friends Church which had been organized in the Sand Creek Community.

In the summer of 1910 they moved to a new home near McCracken, Kansas, and it was just after moving there that Susan, his devoted wife, became ill and died on 26 August 1910.

On 10 April 1919 Eusebius was married to Henrietta Palmer, who was a loyal companion through the years. "Sebe", as he was fondly known to his friends and neighbors, was always ready to help anyone in need and was never happier than when some of his eighteen grandchildren gathered around him to hear his stories of early days in Iowa.

After moving to McCracken he united with the Methodist Church there and remained a faithful member until his death on 8 April 1941.

Following a stroke he was bedridden for the last two years of his life, requiring constant care by his family, but his patience and cheerfulness during that time proved to be outstanding traits of his character.

Alexander Rose Family of Person County, North Carolina

The late Dr. Ben Lacy Rose compiled and published a genealogy on his Alexander Rose family. Among the papers Ben later sent to the Rose Family Association were several items regarding William Cumming Rose of this family. William C. had an illustrious career and contributed greatly to his field. Many articles, awards, etc. were written and presented.

The following obituary was publishing in The Champaign Urbana News Gazette on Sunday, September 29, 1985.

The description of someone as "a scholar and a gentleman" is often used, only sometimes meant and rarely deserved.

For William Rose, it was both common and appropriate.

An internationally recognized pioneer in biochemistry, he died Wednesday in Urbana at the age of 98.

From 1922 until his retirement in 1955, Rose taught at the University of Illinois. During that period, his research led to breakthroughs in the study of amino acids. It was his work that fostered the discovery of threonine, an amino acid indispensable in animal and human diets, and led to the establishment of quantitative amino acid requirements for nitrogen balance in human adults.

In 1966, that work was recognized when President Lyndon Johnson awarded him, the prestigious National Medal of Science.

Herbert Carter, then head of the UI department of chemistry and chemical engineering, was among

Mr. Rose, he said, had "nearly single-handedly" started the research that later became the basis for studies dealing with the worldwide problem of protein nutrition. Nearly 20 years later, the current head of the UI's biochemistry department, Lowell Hager, agreed that Rose's contributions endure as having "laid the foundation for all modern nutritional studies relating to proteins and amino acids."

Among Rose's other honors, a seminar room at the UI and a national lectureship in biochemistry bear his name. He held honorary degrees from Yale, the University of Chicago, the UI and Davidson College.

But those who knew Will Rose are as quick to note his manner as his scholarship. The word "gentleman" is used often and sincerely.

Larry Faulkner, the head of the UI's department of chemistry, said that describing William Rose as a gentleman and a scholar was no overstatement.

"It characterized him better than anyone I've ever met," Faulkner said.

Ed. Note: Some of these files are in (or were) in custody of the Veterans Administration and were not available at the National Archives. That is true of many with the file designations similar to the above. Editor obtained a copy of this file in 1986 from the Veterans Administration Regional Office in San Francisco, Calif., who was in custody of this when inquiry was made. Following is an abstract of the file.

FRANK EDWARD ROSE, aka FRANK E. SMITH, Co. K, U.S. Art., filed 1933, Appl. 31.387; Mass. Cert. A-12-19-33. File XC2635956.

Regular Army: Adj. Gen. Office, Feb. 15, 1934, directed to V.A., Washington D.C. Claim S.O. 1,731,387, Frank E. Smith, b. New Bedford, Mass., a painter, age 22 yr., dark eyes, black hair, sallow compl., 5' 8", enl. July 24, 1885, Batty D 4th Reg. U.S. Art., disch. July 25, 1890 at exp. "No record is found of any service in the zone of, or in connection with, any active Indian hospitalities." Was single at enl., married man at discharge. Next of kin not of record.

War Dept.: Mar. 17, 1933, no record of enlistment has been found in Regular Army for man of name of Frank E. Rose during July 1876, nor found on the muster-rolls of Batty. D, 4th Reg., U.S. Art. During the period in question.

Form: Apr. 12, 1933, from War Dept., Frank E. Smith b. New York, N.Y., occ. Mason, aged 25 years, grey eyes, brown hair, dark compl., 5' 8", enl. July 28, 1876, assigned to Co. K 4th Reg. U.S. Art., hon. Disch July 27, 1881, a Priv. Att'd to Batty. D 4th U.S. Art. From Dec. 10, 1878 to Nov. 1, 1879 and from Jan. 1, 1880 to sometime in July or Aug. 1880. Single at enlistment. Residence at date of enl.: Nyack, N.Y. Served over 30 days is in connection with active Indian hostilities in 1876.

Aff.: Frank E. Rose of New Bedford, Mass., I am the original Frank E. Rose who rendered service in Batty D, 4th Co. U.S. Art. Between July 28, 1876 and July 27, 1881 under name of Frank E. Smith. Reason for enl. Under name of Smith "that I was under age and my parents at that time objected to my enlisting in the U.S. Army ..." Enl. At Ft. Adams, Newport, R.I. and assigned to Batty D 4th Co. U.S. Art. At date of enl. Resided at New Bedford, Mass. Signed: Frank E. Smith 3 May [1933], at Bristol Co., Mass.

Frank Croacher aged 68 res. New Bedford, Mass., has known Frank E. Rose for 55 years, etc., knows of his service. Dated 6 May 1933, Bristol Co., Mass.

James A. Murphy, 66, res. New Bedford, Mass., has known him for 62 years, etc. Signed 6 May 1933, Bristol Co., Mass.

Note: It appears that there were two Frank E. Smith who served in this time period. In a letter March 28, 1934 from the House of Prpr. To Frank Edward Rose alias Frank E. Smith, it is stated that "the veteran's pension was discontinued" because records of the War Dept. showed there were two veterans by that name who served in Batty D 4th U.S. Art. And that one enl. July 28, 1866 and disch. July 27, 1881 and the other enlistment July 24, 1885 and disch July 25, 1890. "It appears that one Frank E. Smith of Alameda, California" filed claim Mar. 15, 1917 and was allowed pension in connection with Indian hostilities in 1876. Evidence shows the present application of Frank E. Rose alias Frank E. Smith was the one who enl. July 1885 and is "without title to pension."

By letter Feb. 27, 1934, Frank E. Rose of 31 Margin St., New Bedford, Mass. Was informed that his record had been confused in the War Dept. and that he had erroneously been receiving a monthly pension. Their records also disclosed there "is no record of any service which you rendered in the zone of in in con---? With any active Indian hostilities. You are, therefore, not --- to the benefit which you received and it will be discontinued at once." Signed by Veteran's Claims Service.

[Note: He is likely the Frank E. Rose in 1930 Pawtucket, Providence Co., R.I., b. Mass., parents b. Portugal. Wife Elizabeth E. listed with him. He was divorced the following year in R.I. according to affidavit.]

Rev. Robert Rose of Virginia

From Nancy Burleson at naburleson@suddenlink.net

Her lineage:

1. Rev. Rose and his wife, Ann Fitzhugh, were her sixth great grandparents.
2. His son, Patrick Rose, was father of Robert Selden Rose, then on down through:

Robert Lawson Rose, then Henry Fontaine Rose, whose daughter Edith Fontaine Rose who married William Mitchell Lewis of Racine. Their son, William Turnor Lewis II, was her maternal grandfather.

"While visiting my first cousin (Kai Lewis Brouchoud) ... she showed me an antique oil portrait that came out of our grandparents' home in Racine after they had passed away. The mystery has been in trying to identify the person in the portrait, but we believe it to be one of our ancestors. It hung in a prominent place in the Racine home for as long as anyone can remember. Looking at the portrait of the first Robert Selden Rose, I can see facial similarities that would make me think this may be one of the Roses." Kai says there is nothing written on the back of the painting but it was framed by the Thurber Fine Arts company in Chicago, which I believe did framing between the years 1880 and 1931. Possible identities of this man could be: Robert Selden Rose (in his younger days?), his son Robert Lawson Rose (1804-1877), or his grandson Henry Fontaine Rose (1829-1906). First, the known portrait of Robert Selden Rose, followed by our "mystery man": Any ideas? The clothing might give a clue as to the age of the portrait. Thanks again for a most wonderful book! - Nancy Burleson (naburleson@suddenlink.net)

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Washington Post, Sept. 28, 2012, Music Review by Mark Jenkins, summarized: Frankie Rose, the Brooklyn singer-guitarist, veteran of several performances, at the Rock & Roll Hotel, said she was retiring her latest CD after her current tour. [Sent by Ruth Woods. Photo too dark to reproduce.]

From Weather Friends in The Wall Street Journal, Sat.-Sun. Jan. 26-27, 2013, Bruce Rose, a scientific consultant to the Weather Channel and its former principal scientist was mentioned. "They don't want their consumers to be surprised," he said of fellow forecasters, "And in their mind, they think it's better to have a false alarm so people are fairly warned, as opposed to missing that forecast." [Sent by Thomas Rose of Richmond, Va.]

Lila Rose: Summarized from a lengthy article in Arlington [Va.] Catholic Herald of Jan. 17-23, 2013, article bylined by Gretchen R. Crowe. Ten days prior to the 40th anniversary of the passage of Roe v Wade, a group of pro-life advocates gathered at St. Charles Borromeo Church in Arlington Jan. 12 for a mini-retreat headlined by pro-life activist Lila Rose. Rose, a 24-year-old Catholic convert, officially became involved with the right-to-life movement at 15 when she founded Live Action, a pro-life nonprofit specializing in investigative journalism. "But her pro-life heart was developed even earlier than that in her San Jose, Calif., childhood home, where she was the third of eight children.: [Sent by Pat Hudson]

ARCHIBALD ROSE. Richmond, Virginia.

This is the final payment to heirs for Revolutionary pension. Available from the National Archives. The ledgers of payments are from Microfilm publication T-718 Roll 1 Vol. A, Act of 1818, 818-32, Ledgers, but those include all payments made. The Final Payment of Pension files are only available if there was an outstanding sum due the pensioner and someone claimed it. These are only for the Revolutionary War. These claims were made by an agent for the estate (executor, administrator, etc.) or by heirs of a deceased pensioner. Only the ledgers are microfilmed; the files themselves must be requested on NATF 85 or if at the Archives personally, use their in-house form. The following file was personally examined at the National Archives by editor. To request a file provide the name of the pensioner (usually the husband or spouse), the agency from which the payment was made (in this case Richmond), and a date or approximate date of death. This is because the files are organized in that manner. Note also that there could be two files; one for the husband and one for the wife. Or, only one file which could be for either the husband or the wife. Or, if no one filed such a claim, there will be no file.]

Escambia County, Florida

In a 1983 letter received by editor from the Circuit Court of this county, who reported: there was a Phillip Rose in Escambia County as early as 1827 who was falsely imprisoned for a debt. There was also a Walter Rose in Pensacola in 1874 who built an ice house on the waterfront, and a A. J. Rose who was an attorney in the 1890s. Their court case index shows an F. P. Rose who was in the fishing business with a J. R. Saunders in the early 1900s.

Phillip Rose family of Franklin County, Ohio

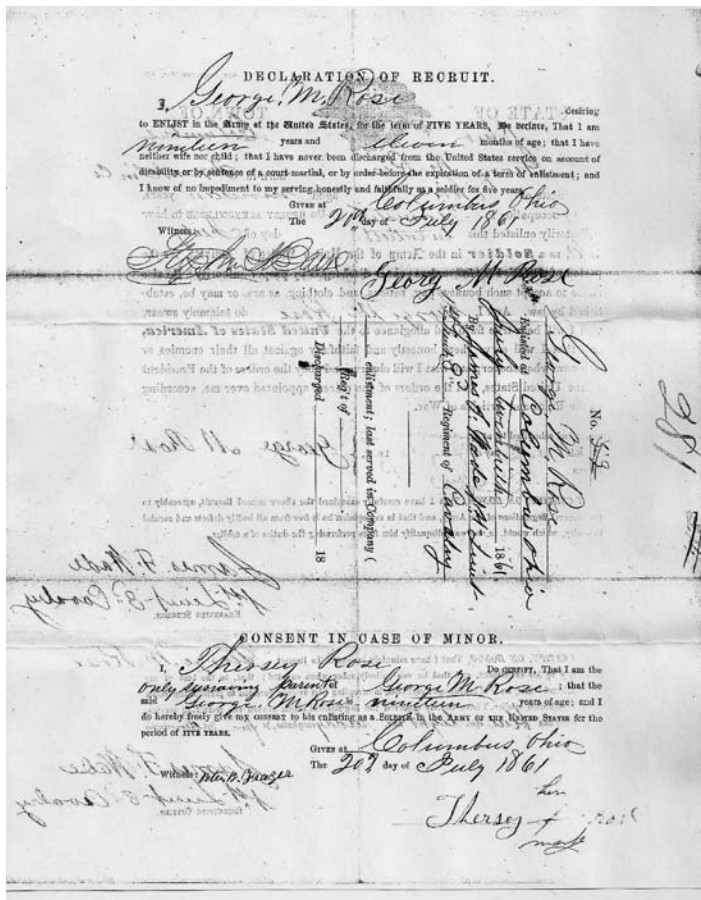

FROM INFORMATION SUBMITTED BY ARLO AND JEAN (ROSE) BAUMGARN

Arlo and Jean are very interested in Jean's Rose family. She is a descendant of George Melville Rose, a son of Aaron and his first wife Theresa "Therzy" (Young) Rose. Though it was known that there was some sort of connection between George M. Rose and Aaron Rose, it wasn't clear whether they were father and son. However, Arlo and Jean found at the National Archives the Recruit Declaration for 1861 in the Civil War in which George M. Rose signed, and Thersey (her x mark) Rose signed for consent of a minor. which provides some very good evidence.

This family descends from Phillip Rose of Franklin County, Ohio. Many will recall this family has been of particular interest because Phillip's daughter Sarah married a Abraham Lacy Rose. Jean's ancestor Aaron Rose was a son of Philip, and brother of Sarah (Rose) Rose. Y-DNA testing puts Phillip Rose in Group Y, while his son-in-law Abraham Lacy Rose is in Group K (the latter related to Long Island Roses).

Those interested in this family will find a Family Report listed at: www.RoseFamilyAssociation.com. Go to the tab "For Sale" and then to "Family Reports."

ar

Arlo tells us that they ordered the military records of George M. Rose from the National Archives and the Declaration of Recruit was among them. To the upper right is George M. Rose taken in Worthington Minnesota. To the right are Arlo and Jean Baumgarn.

Joel Beverly Rose, Dubois County, Indiana and Kentucky

CONNECTED TO EDITOR'S FAMILY OF BENNET ROSE OF KING GEORGE COUNTY, VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA

The following was extracted from a lengthy account sent by Carol Horne who tells us that this account was prepared by her great aunt Helen Rose. DNA testing indicates that this family is in Group L which is not surprising since they carry the name of Bennet in their family. Associate editor Seymour T. Rose descends from Bennet Rose of King George and Culpepper Counties, Virginia who later moved to Surry/Wilkes County area of North Carolina. Joel Beverly Rose .

Lengthy notes "Historical Notes on Dubois County 'Indiana" ... The members of the Rose family, American settlers in the western part of Madison township, were for half a century a beacon light of intellectual activity ,... By request Miss Helen Rose has kindly furnished these Historical Notes with the following history of the Rose family, and EARLY LIFE IN MADISON TOWNSHIP:

"Mary Ann Nicholson, eldest daughter of Richard and Susan Stover Nicholson, was born on a farm in the extreme northwest corner of Clarke County, Indiana, Jan. 10, 1843. She was the third child in a family of thirteen. Her grandfather's family had moved to Indiana from the Allegheny Mountain region during the thirties. They were a part of the tide of western emigration. The elder Nicholson and his sons came to Indiana in good financial circumstances. Richard Nicholson and his family came to Hillman, Dubois County about 1855, where my mother attended district school until fifteen years of age, when her teacher told her she was able to make a license to teach. He presented her an English grammar, edited by Noble Butler, as a reward for excellent scholarship. However, she did not become a teacher, as women were not yet engaged in that profession in Dubois County, but, instead, assisted in the performance of the numerous household duties entailed by the needs of a large family. Spinning, dyeing and weaving, and sewing were domestic arts in which she attained unusual skill. She took an active part in church and social affairs of the time and place.

"One event when she was scarcely eighteen, her 'knight' in the person of my father "came riding by" and asked for lodging for the night. The celerity with which she prepared the evening meal attracted his attention as readily as her bright, dark eyes, raven black hair and fine complexion. The result was that after a courtship of two years, they were married Dec. 23, 1862. They became the parents of six children, Helen, Mary B. (Mrs. Mollie B. Cooper), Edith (Mrs. Edith R. Hostetter), Charles B., Susan (who died in infancy) and Maye (Mrs. Maye R. Green). My mother died Dec. 22, 1919. The remains of both mother and father rest in Shiloh Cemetery.

"Joel Beverly Rose was born in Southern Kentucky, July 11, 1831, and died at his home in Madison Township, Dubois County, Indiana, May 18th, 1897. He was the son of Walker and Edith Kemper Rose. He was the third of seven children. His paternal grandfather, Wm. Bennett Rose, had emigrated from Culpepper County, Virginia, to Kentucky. His father was a tanner by trade and his mother the daughter of a wealthy Kentucky land owner, who voluntarily freed his slaves several years before the beginning of the Civil War.

"Joel attended school in a pioneer log schoolhouse with a huge fireplace in one end of the room, uncomfortable backless hewn log seats in the center, a hewn log shelf extending along one side which served as a writing desk during the day and upon which books were stored when not in use. The chief materials of instruction were a reader, a spelling book, an arithmetic, a copy book and a goose quill pen, and presiding over all a stern master who wielded his beach rod without discrimination. On account of the death of his father Joel was compelled to leave school at the age of thirteen and assist his mother and older brother John in earning a living for the large family. At the age of twenty he became a partner with his brother-in-law, Amos Dye, in the live stock trade, which consisted of buying and selling horses, sheep and cattle, While engaged in this business, he made several steamboat trips to New Orleans. In the meantime, his mother had received a considerable sum as her inheritance from her father's estate, and the family had moved to the more progressive region further north ... according to the Dubois County official records concerning the transfer of real estate, in 1854, Dye and Rose purchased from Samuel Postlethwait, a farm of two hundred acres west of Ireland, the same lying in sections eighteen and nineteen. The next year they sold this to William Mahan and returned to Kentucky where the Dye family had continued their residence. About 1857, Joel B. Rose and his brother-in-law dissolved partnership, the latter with his wife, Aunt Mary, moving to Texas. The older brother, John, had married and gone to Arkansas to establish a home for his coming family. Two brothers, Oscar and Alonzo had died while the family lived in Southern Kentucky. The remainder of the family, consisting of Joel B., his mother, a younger brother, Albert, and a young sister Melvina, came to Dubois County. In 1860, Joel B. and Albert purchased seventy-five acres near Hillham, Columbia Township, from William M. and Mary A. Cave ...

Ed. note: The following has always intrigued us, because of the name of Bennett Rose, the same as editor's ancestor. Now it would appear very likely that the following is connected in some manner to the family of Joel Beverly Rose of this present article.

Acts of the General Assembly of the commonwealth of Kentucky 1841-1842

p. 146: Chapter 116. AN ACT for the benefit of the heirs of Bennett Rose, deceased.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That it shall be lawful for the guardian of Eliza Jane Rose, William Rose, Winston Rose, Bennett Rose, John Rose, Elizabeth Rose, and Mary J. Rose, children and heirs at law of Bennett Rose, deceased, to file a bill or petition in the Casey Circuit Court, praying for the sale of a tract of land, in the county of Barren, which belonged to said Bennett Rose at his death; and the Judge of said court is directed to decree the sale of said land whenever the guardian shall manifest the propriety and expediency of so doing, in the manner prescribed by existing laws: Provided, however, that the Judge of said court shall be regulated in his action on said bill or petition, by the laws now in force and the rules of chancery practice.

Sec. 2. That it shall be lawful for the Judge of said court, if to him it shall appear most beneficial to the interest of the heirs of said Bennett Rose, deceased, to appoint some fit and proper person as Curator for said heirs, and to him said Judge shall confide, under the supervision and control of the court, the power and authority to select, contract for, and purchase, in the name and in behalf of the heirs, some suitable tract of land in the county of Casey: Provided, said Curator shall not undertake or contract to pay therefor, a greater sum of money than that realized by the sale of the tract of land in the county of Barren, and the Judge of said court is hereby invested with full and ample power and authority to make all such rules and decrees as to him may seem right and necessary to effectuate the object and intent of this act.

News in Brief

Summarized from a lengthy article. Mickey Rose was a childhood friend of Woody Allen, sharing his pal's fervent enthusiasms for baseball, jazz and movies and later becoming the young film-maker's writing partner for his early mad-cap comedies. Mr. Rose went on to become a television comedy writer for Johnny Carson, Sid Caesar and others. He died April 7 at his home in Beverly Hills, Calif. at the age of 77.

He was born in Brooklyn on May 20, 1935. Michael Rose, known as Mickey, was the son of a single mother, Sylvia Subin. His father left the family before he was born.

Mr. Rose married Judy Wolf who died in 2003 after 40 years of marriage. In addition to his daughter, Jennifer, a stand-up comedian, his survivors include his son, Quincy Rose, a filmmaker, and grandchildren.

In a statement released by Allen's biographer, Allen said "Mickey was one of the funniest humans I know, a true original ..."

Article in the Washinton Post of April 13, 2013, by-lined by Rebecca Trounson and sent by member Pat Hudson.

Matt and Kem Rose are crazy about beer, "but only the good stuff." They will open a brewery in Lorton, Virginia which will host tasting evenings on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays. [From Greater Alexandria Patch April 2013, sent by Pat Hudson.]

A reunion announcement of the 67th annual Rose Family Reunion held August 11, 2013 at Douthat state Park, Virginia. This is a yearly event; a gathering of descendants of Joseph Rose of Giles and Montgomery Counties, Virginia who believe their earliest ancestor was named Alexander Rose. They are part of Group P of the DNA project. If you are interested in next year's get together email to aclark25@juno.com to be put on their mailing list.

This interesting Rose family has a connection to the Nathaniel Rose family of Estill County, Kentucky though the exact connection is not known. Nathaniel was born before 1775 and married Esther who is believed to have been a DORTON or DEATON.

Descendants continue to seek answers to the ancestry!

SPECIAL FOR 2013 ROSE FAMILY ASSOCIATION MEMBERS!

We like to periodically offer our members a special on books.

Christine's book Courthouse Research for Family Historians has been a vastly popular book since it was first published. The regular price is $21.98. However, this special for the 2013 members of the Rose Family Association is $15.00 plus $5.90 priority mailing.

Offer expires December 1, 2013.

To get your copy you can either pay by PAYPAL or send a check to 761 Villa Teresa Way, San Jose, CA 95123. If you are a member of PAYPAL you can make payment to Christine@Christine4Rose.com. If you are not a member of PAYPAL but want to use Paypal just email to Christine at the foregoing EMAIL address and state you want the book on the special. An email will then be sent to you through PAYPAL and you can use the link in it to arrange payment to them.

Consider getting one for yourself and one for a Christmas present.
We can put two books in one Priority package so you would not need to add postage for the second copy!
